

Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin

Oneidas bringing several hundred bags of corn to Washington's starving army at Valley Forge, after the colonists had consistently refused to aid them.

UGWA DEMOLUM YATEHE
Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States was made possible.

BC Resolution 07-13-11-D Amendments to the Child Custody, Placement and Visitation law to address moving and extended removal of a child

- WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin is a federally recognized Indian government and a treaty tribe recognized by the laws of the United States of America; and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida General Tribal Council is the governing body of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin; and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee has been delegated the authority of Article IV of the Oneida Tribal Constitution by the Oneida General Tribal Council; and
- WHEREAS, the Tribe enacted the Child Custody, Placement and Visitation law to provide a Tribal venue for legal custody, physical placement, and visitation orders based on the facts surrounding each case and the best interest of the child; and
- WHEREAS, the Child Custody, Placement and Visitation law does not specifically address the situation where parents have a custody and placement order and a parent wishes to move out of state; and
- WHEREAS, it is important to have a procedure in place in which a moving parent can give notice to the non-custodial parent, and then if that parent objects, a hearing can be held; and
- WHEREAS, such a procedure can prevent a potentially volatile situation if a parent moves out of state in violation of a court order and does not allow the other parent to see the child; and
- WHEREAS, a public hearing on the amendments was held on May 23, 2011

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the attached amendments to the Child Custody, Placement and Visitation law are hereby adopted.
