-SPECIAL MEETING-

OCTOBER 21, 1982

MINUTES

Members Present: Norbert Hill, Acting Chairman, Gordon McLester, Secretary, Tony Benson, Mark Powless, Council members.

Others Present: Joseph Villagomez

Employment Recommendations

Community Health Educational Coordinator - Tony moved to approve the recommendation for Pat R. Burns. Gordon seconded. Motion carried.

Income Maintenance Assistant - Gordon moved to approve the recommendation of Roberto Pequero. Tony seconded. Motion carried.

Temporary Employment - Vincent Cornelius is presently assigned to the Accounting Office working 15 hours/week through RNIP. The Accounting Office needs to prepare things for the audit that Vincent has been very helpful with. Personnel will supplement his RNIP for 3 days this week and 3 days next week, this will not hurt his eligibility for this month's RNIP check.

Early Childhood Teacher Assistant - It has been requested by Mary Ellen Hayes to bring on Dorothy King on a limited time employment basis for the Headstart Program. (Working with a over-active child) Process would begin on November 2, 1982. Dorothy's schedule would be 7 hours a day, 5 days a week during the months of November and December. At the beginning of the second portion of the school year following the Christmas break, Mary will reevaluate and determine whether or not Dorothy should continue. Joe Villagomez will review this situation with Mary Ellen Hayes.
