Arts and Crafts Discussion on Liquidation

The four options of the Arts and Crafts inventory that were developed to the General Tribal Council were:

1. To have an open-to-the-public sale to be held prior to Christmas.
2. Contact vendors to liquidate inventory.
3. Hold another liquidation sale after the first of the year.
4. Turn the inventory over to the museum.

Consignment Item

Elaine Cornelius put a squash blossom necklace on consignment. The estimated value was $150.00. The squash blossom necklace could not be found.

Kathy Hughes made a recommendation that we pay Elaine Cornelius for the missing necklace.

Tony Benson made a motion to pay Elaine the $150.00. Lloyd seconded. Mark abstained. Motion carried.

Job Training and Partnership Act

A new program dealing with training is being set up by the State. The training would be in any area that the Tribe would like to have covered.

Gordon Burr introduced Ray Chevetta, who has been chosen by the state to coordinate this program. At this time, Ray Chevetta is going around talking to the different Tribes, and explaining the training. More information will follow.

Campaign for Human Development

Discussion on the budget for the job description by Jerry Hill. The two job descriptions are:

1. Court Clerk
