Present: Richard Hill-Vice Chairman, Kathy Hughes-Treasurer, Gordon McLester-Secretary, Lloyd Powless, Mark Powless, Loretta V. Metoxen, Council Members.

Excused: Purcell Powless, Tony Benson, Lois Powless

Others: Dale Wheelock, Jerry Hill

310-PERSONNEL RECOMMENDATION (INTERNAL PROMOTION-ASSISTANT MANAGER - Dale Wheelock

It is a joint recommendation from the Personnel Director and Enterprise Director that Donald Denny be appointed as Assistant Manager at the Oneida One Stop. Mark made a motion to approve the recommendation, and that the internal promotion be effective October 1, 1983. Loretta seconded. Motion carried.

310-TRANSFER OF SHARON WEBSTER FROM NURSING HOME TO PLANNING OFFICE (PERSONNEL) - Dale Wheelock

This transfer request is supported by Rick Johnson, Carl Rasmussen, Dale Wheelock, and Tony Utschig. Mark moved to approve the transfer. Loretta seconded. Motion carried.

060-TRAVEL REQUESTS (3) (BUSINESS COMMITTEE) - Lloyd Powless

Lloyd requested to attend the Governor's Conference on Jobs & Training on November 1,2,3 at Olympia resort, Oconomowoc. Kathy moved to approve the request. Mark seconded. Motion carried.

Request for travel for Lloyd to attend the meeting of the Indian Ministry Ecumenical Partnership, and Wisconsin Indian Resource Council on October 25 at the Student Center in Stevens Point. Mark moved to approve the travel request and that Lloyd give an update on what Indian Ministry Ecumenical Partnership and Wisconsin Indian Resource Council are doing. Kathy seconded. Motion carried.

060-Travel Requests (Continued) - Lloyd Powless

Lloyd also requested to attend a seminar on "The Free Book Program", on December 12, & 13, 1983 in Reno, Nevada. The purpose of this seminar is to establish a network of regional distribution centers in the United States to provide current reading and instructional materials, free of charge, to children, the ill, needy, and elderly Indian people which are unavailable from other sources. Through the expertise and sharing of information accumulated by the Ft. Belknap Regional Distribution Center, questions from participants regarding the operation and maintenance of future centers will be answered before implementation.

Loretta made a motion to table this travel request until Lloyd consults with the Oneida Library and the Tribal School for their input. Kathy seconded. Motion carried.

040-EDUCATIONAL TV (RE: BINGO) - Rick Rockwell

Rick Rockwell met with some members of the Business Committee informally and explained that he would like to do a story on the Bingo operation of some of the tribes in Wisconsin. Oneida would be one of them. Kathy moved to approve the request to do a story on the Oneida Bingo and that Mark act as contact person. Lloyd seconded. Motion carried.

220-LAW OFFICE - Jerry Hill

Discussion on the Historical Statement concerning the Benson site. Jerry stated that at this time the Business Committee should consider not sending anything to the press, due to the many issues that are occurring at this time; the development of the new Commission, and the appeal of Green Bay over putting the 23½ acres of land in trust.

Kathy made a motion to modify the release of the material and not to send any information to the news media, only the two (2) County governments. Loretta seconded. Motion carried.

220-AMENDMENT TO INTERIM ONEIDA HUNTING REGULATIONS - Jerry Hill

Jerry was given direction to make some changes on the regulations. One change was in the "Eligibility", the other was in "Prohibition". Mark made a motion to approve the regulations with the amendments. Loretta seconded. Motion carried.

Mark will check on the placement of game tags at the Oneida One Stop. The game tags would be affixed to each animal taken by a tribal member who wishes to take such game off the Oneida Indian Reservation. Rick Hill will work on the development of a safety class for tribal members.

340-GYM DEDICATION (RECREATION) - Rick Hill

Rick would like to request that the gym (Oneida Nation Memorial Bldg) be named
