

Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin

BUSINESS COMMITTEE

Oneidas bringing several hundred bags of corn to Washington's starving army at Valley Forge, after the colonists had consistently refused to aid them.

UGWA DEMOLUM YATEHE
Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States was made possible.

RESOLUTION # 6-27-01-D

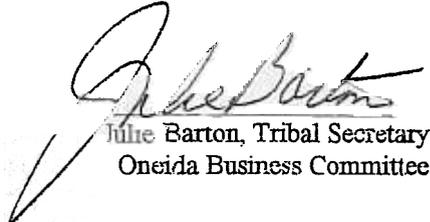

Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention/Tribal Youth Program/Mental Health Program

- WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin is a federally recognized Indian government and treaty tribe recognized by the laws of the United States, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida General Tribal Council is the governing body of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee has been delegated the authority of Article IV, Section of the Oneida Tribal Constitution by the Oneida General Tribal Council, and
- WHEREAS, the goal of the Oneida Tribe is to protect and improve the resources, standards of living, and the environment in which the Oneida People live while maintaining, enforcing, and exercising the sovereign rights of the Oneida Tribe, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe has as one of its top priorities, the education and safety of its members from birth to adult, throughout the circle of life, while maintaining the cultural significance of the Oneida People, and
- WHEREAS, The Oneida Tribe continues to support the holistic concept of bringing the Oneida People together as we strive to meet the needs of our children and families through a collaboration of services, including on-going education, supportive services and mentoring of both children and families for the next seven generations.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin-Oneida Social Services Area and with collaboration of the Oneida Nation School System and the Oneida YES Program authorizes and submits this grant application to the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention/Tribal Youth Program/Mental Health Program for FY2001-2004 to assist in the efforts of reducing, controlling, and preventing crime and delinquency both by and against tribal youth by providing a holistic, culturally based program that incorporates current youth needs, and traditional practices for community healing and empowerment which will involve a community-wide collaboration of services and community input for youth, families and extended families throughout the circle of life.
