Oneidas bringing several hundred bags of corn to Washington's starving army at Valley Forge, after the colonists had consistently refused to aid them.

UGWA DEMOLUM YATEHE
Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the Colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States, was made possible.

RESOLUTION # 12-4-91-A

- WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin is a federally recognized Indian government and a Treaty Tribe recognized by the laws of the United States, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida General Tribal Council is the governing body of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee has been delegated the authority of Article IV, Section 1 of the Oneida Tribal Constitution by the Oneida General Tribal Council, and
- WHEREAS, the University of Wisconsin Law School has established a summer law intern program whereby three Indian law students were placed on reservations of Wisconsin this past summer, and
- WHEREAS, this intern program will be expanded to place five students on reservations this coming summer, and
- WHEREAS, this intern program is beneficial both for the tribes and the law students that participate, and
- WHEREAS, it appears that the law school will expand its program to establish the Great Lakes Indian Resource Center to provide, in addition to the summer intern program, a pre-law program for beginning law students, workshop/training interaction sessions for tribal officials and employees, and other programs for Indian law students and tribal members interested in Indian law.
- NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin, hereby endorses, supports and accepts placement of students from the University of Wisconsin Law School Great Lakes Indian Resource Center and also supports the programs administered by it for the benefit of Indian law students and the Indian community of Wisconsin interested in scholarship, research, and education in the field of Indian law.
