

A meeting of the executive board was held at the home of Lydia W. Powless, Dec 21, 1937. Majority officers present. A question of Women's project was discussed. It was moved and seconded the secretary be leader of the sewing organization and if the women do beadwork and lace work they would have instructors for that. The instructors to come one day in each week at the home of the leader.

The board decided to have the secretary write to different concerns and find out what work they would let out for the women to do.

The meeting adjourned.
