Motion by Althea Schuyler to have Julius Danforth and James Schuyler appraise the house and put a lock on the door. Seconded by Eva Danforth. Carried.

Council discussed fixing the pump at the O.C.C. Mrs. Moore said Simon Moore would fix it on Sat. May 7th.

Motion was made by Althea Schuyler that the Tribe rent the O.C.C. grounds and bldgs.. to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greendeer for a pow-wow on May 28, 29 and 30th for the fee of $75. And the Tribe is to have option to have a hamburger and pop stand and also sell corn bread. Seconded by Irene Moore. Carried. Secretary advised to send copy of minutes to Mr. Riley so a contract can be drawn up to this effect.

Julius Danforth volunteered to contact Seymour Beverage about pop.

Motion by Irene Moore to see that the O.C.C. grounds have out-houses for pow-wow.
Seconded by Althea Schuyler. Carried.

Council discussed birth certificates in question at the request of the Ashland offices. They decided that Mildred Elizabeth Schuyler unreadable is one and the same party and the mother of Kenneth Schuyler in question. She is a step daughter of Oscar Archiquette. It must be that there was an error in her age at one time or the other. A motion was made by Irene Moore to accept 20 birth certificates for enrollment, seconded by Althea Schuyler. Carried.

The following names were approved for enrollment:

Gerald Gauthier	Thelma Joan Doxtator
