NEW BUSINESS:

John Powless informed the Committee the Water Resources Planner's position (Mike Schaepe) funds ran out as of noon today. Wants to know: 1.) Should he take vacation time; 2.) Will the Tribe pick him up if re-imburement is guaranteed; 3.) Should he be laid off.

Problem appears to be that the General Tribal Council did not act on the Ordinance. Our position is that when Business Committee adopted the Ordinance it went into effect, although it is subject to review by the General Tribal Council. John will follow up on it. Business Committee recommended option 1.

Letter from Anita Herrera of Governor's Office requesting recommendation of names of persons to serve on the Indian Advisory Council. Recommendations were Rose Lietenin, Frank Cornelius, Mary Greendeer, Andrew John. No action was taken on this.

Norbert asked if a person with a dishonorable discharge can serve on the Business Committee? What problems would be created if such person was elected. Wants Attorney's opinion.

rank moved to recess at 7:33 P.M. Norbert seconded. Motion carried unanimously

Respectfully submitted,

Howard Cannon
