Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the Colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States was made possible.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

February 11, 1982

FEBRUARY 11, 1982

Executive session with John Powless at 3:00 P.M.

John was asked to respond to actions taken that constitute insubordination. Specifically addressed was his memo to the Business Committee suggesting resignation of Business Committee members and signing off on a proposal without authority to do so. In response he said that he would do it again if the situation arose. With that he offered his resignation.

Frank moved to accept his resignation. Seconded by Wendell. Motion carried with Mark and Norbert opposing.

Respectfully Submitted,

Howard Cannon, Acting Secretary
