UPDATE ON BINGO MEETING IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

(JOBS BILL)

Kathy Hughes and Mark Powless attended the meeting in Washington. There they presented the Tribe's statement on the Jobs Bill regarding allocated funds for Housing. They were referred to John Fritz. With John they initially discussed the Jobs Bill and were informed that 7 out of 10 tribes did not receive funding.

(GAMBLING TASK FORCE)

At a Gambling Task Force meeting on June 9, 1983 statements were given by various members as to the Tribes position on the Bureau role in the gambling operative, Bingo. Initially, everyone agreed regulations and guidelines developed by the Bureau were not needed. Another meeting is scheduled in Oklahoma City on July 18, 1983. Prior to this meeting each Tribe is to receive minutes from both the D.C. meeting and the Denver meeting. In addition we should receive the Title 18 draft proposal on gambling.

(TRUST STATUS ON BENSON PROPERTY)

Kathy and Mark were informed that the BIA is prepared to put the land in trust as soon as the file has all the documentation in it. What is needed is the Cooperative Agreement present to the City of Green Bay and the minutes from the May 19, 1983 meeting at Southwest High School. They feel that the property should be placed in trust in approximately three weeks.

Gordon made a motion to accept Kathy and Mark's report. Lloyd seconded. Kathy abstained. Motion carried.
