INTERIM PROCEDURES FOR EVICTIONS

The Business Committee reviewed the interim procedures for evictions developed by the Law Office which states:

In compliance with the direction of the General Tribal Council, which is the duly authorized governing body of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin, to establish tribal jurisdiction over Oneida Housing Authority matters; the following eviction procedures for Oneida HOusing Authority units are established.

- I. On the date of the last day for the tenant to voluntarily vacate an Oneida Housing Authority unit, the Housing Director shall go to the tenants residence, with a witness, and notify the tenant:
 - A. That tenant and his/her belongings will be physically removed, and
 - B. That a time has been set for a truck and haulers to be at the residence in order to remove the evicted tenants belongings, and
 - C. That Oneida Tribal Security will be present to protect both the tenant and the housing employees, and
 - D. That an order for eviction and removal will be issued by the Oneida Tribe to the tenant at the time of actual removal if the tenant has not vacated the premises.

INTERIM EVICTION PROCEDURES (CONTINUED)

- II. The Housing Director shall then notify:
- A. The Oneida Tribal Secretary in writing that an eviction order is required because a tenant has ignored an eviction notice, and
 - B. The head of the Oneida Tribal Security in writing, that two or three tribal security people will be needed at a certain date and time.
- III. The Oneida Tribal Secretary shall arrange a meeting date for the Oneida Business Committee to take action on a resolution and order for eviction.
- A. The Tribal Secretary shall then notify, in writing, the Housing Director of the action taken.
 - B. The Secretary shall deliver, or the Housing Director shall pick up the order as soon as practicable.
- I.V. The Housing Director shall then coordinate the housing employees, vehicles and security for the actual physical removal.
- V. If the tenant is not home for the above notification, a notice in writing shall be left at the residence with someone at the residence who is at least twelve (12) years of age or more, or if no one is home, the notice may be left on the door.

Dave moved to approve the Interim Procedures for evictions. Mark seconded. Motion carried.
