Provided that, until such time as regulations are developed regarding the certification of licensed land surveyors, certification under this section shall be verification of a valid state license, permit, or other approval of qualifications.

68.10-3. A description in any instrument affecting title to any unit which makes reference to the letter or number or other appropriate designation on the condominium plat together with a reference to the condominium instruments shall be a good and sufficient description for all purposes.

Any change shall be evidenced by an amendment to the declaration and recorded among the appropriate land records. The percentage interests may not be separated from the unit to which they belong. Any instrument, matter, circumstance, action, occurrence or proceeding in any manner affecting a unit also shall affect, in like manner, the percentage interests appurtenant to the unit.

68.11-5. Alterations within units:
(a) A unit owner may make any improvements or alterations within his or her unit that do not impair the structural integrity or lessen the support of any portion of the condominium. A unit owner may not change the exterior appearance of a unit or of any other portion of the condominium without permission of the board of directors of the association.

(b) Except to the extent prohibited by the condominium instruments, and subject to any restrictions and limitations specified therein, a unit owner acquiring an adjoining or adjoining part of an adjoining unit, may remove all or any part of any intervening partition or create doorways or other apertures therein, even if the partition may in whole or in part be a common element, if those acts do not impair the structural integrity or lessen the support of any portion of the condominium. The creation of doorways or other apertures is not deemed an alteration of boundaries.

68.11-6. Relocation of boundaries.

(a) If any condominium instruments expressly permit a relocation of boundaries between adjoining units, those boundaries may be relocated in accordance with this section and any restrictions and limitations which the condominium instruments may specify.

(b) If any unit owners of adjoining units whose mutual boundaries may be relocated desire to relocate those boundaries, the principal officer of the unit owners association, upon written application from those unit owners and after 30 days' written notice to all other unit owners, shall prepare and execute appropriate instruments.

If the adjoining unit owners have specified in their written application the reallocation between their units of the aggregate undivided interest in the common elements appertaining to those units, the amendment to the declaration shall reflect that reallocation.

(e) Plats and plans showing the altered boundaries and the dimensions thereof between adjoining units, and their identifying numbers or letters, shall be prepared. The plats and plans shall be certified as to their accuracy in compliance with this subsection by a civil engineer, architect or licensed land surveyor certified by the Tribe to practice his or her profession. Provided that, until such time as regulations are developed regarding the certification of civil engineers, architects or licensed land surveyors, certification under this section shall be verification of a valid state license, permit, or other approval of qualifications.

(f) After appropriate instruments have been prepared and executed, they shall be delivered promptly to the adjoining unit owners upon payment by them of all reasonable charges for the preparation thereof. Those instruments are effective when the adjoining unit owners have executed them and they are recorded in the name of the grantor and grantee. The recordation thereof is conclusive evidence that the relocation of boundaries did not violate the condominium instruments.

68.12-1. Use of Common Elements. The common elements may be used only for the purposes for which they were intended and, except as provided in the condominium instruments, bylaws, or the overrule contract the common elements are subject to mutual rights of support, access, use and enjoyment by all unit owners. 68.12-2. The declaration, bylaws or the overrule contract may allow any unit owner of a unit to which the use of any limited common element is restricted to grant the use of the limited common element to any other unit owner, subject to the rights of any existing mortgagor. Thereafter, the grantor has no further right to use the limited common element.

68.13-1. Common Expenses and Common Surpluses. Disposition of common surpluses. All common surpluses of the association shall be credited to the unit owners' assessments for common expenses in proportion to their percentage interests in the common elements or as otherwise provided in the declaration or shall be used for any other purpose as the association decides.

68.13-2. Funds for payment of common expenses obtained by assessments. Funds for the payment of common expenses and for the creation of reserves for the payment of future common expenses shall be obtained by assessments against the unit owners in proportion to their percentage interests in the common elements or as otherwise provided in the declaration.

68.13-3. Liability for assessments. A unit owner shall be liable for all assessments, or installments thereof, coming due while owning a unit. Liability for assessments may not be avoided by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any common element or by abandonment of the unit for which the assessments are made.

68.13-4. Condominium lien. All assessments, until paid, together with interest on them and actual costs of collection constitute a lien on the units on which they are assessed, if a statement of lien is filed within 6 months after the date the assessment becomes due. The lien is effective against a unit at the time the assessment becomes due regardless of when within the 6 month period it is filed. A statement of condominium lien is filed in the Division of Land Management stating the description of the unit, the name of the record owner, the amount due and the period for which the assessment was due. The clerk shall index the statement of condominium lien under the name of the record owner in the condominium lien docket. The statement of condominium lien shall be signed and verified by an officer or agent of the association as specified in the bylaws and then may be filed. On full payment of the assessment for which the lien is claimed, the unit owner shall be entitled to a recordable satisfaction of the lien.

68.13-5. Statement. Any grantee of a unit is entitled to a statement from the association setting forth the amount of unpaid assessments against the grantor and the grantee is not liable for, nor shall the unit conveyed be subject to a lien which is not filed under sec. 13-4 for, any unpaid assessment against the grantor in excess of the amount set forth in the statement. If an association does not provide such a statement within 10 business days after the grantee's request, they are barred from claiming any lien which is not filed under sec. 13-4 prior to the request for the statement against the grantee.

68.13-6. Priority of lien. All sums assessed by an association but unpaid for the share of the common expenses chargeable to any unit constitutes a lien on the unit and on the undivided interest in the common elements belonging to it prior to all other liens except:

(a) Liens of general and special taxes.

(b) All sums unpaid on a first mortgage recorded prior to the making of the assessment.

(c) Mechanic's liens filed prior to the making of the assessment.

68.13-7. Interest on unpaid assessment. Any assessment, or installment thereof, not paid when due shall bear interest, at the option of the association, from the date when due until paid at a rate not exceeding the highest rate permitted by law stated in the bylaws.

68.13-8. Enforcement of lien. A lien may be enforced and foreclosed by an association or any other person specified in the bylaws, in the same manner, and subject to the same requirements, as a foreclosure of mortgages on real property at the Division of Land Management. An association may recover costs and actual attorney fees. An association may, unless prohibited by the declaration, bid on the unit at foreclosure sale and acquire, hold, lease, mortgage and convey the unit. Suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid common expenses shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the same. Suit for any deficiency following foreclosure may be maintained in the same proceeding. No action may be brought to foreclose the lien unless brought within 3 years following the recording of the statement of condominium lien. No action may be brought to foreclose the lien except after 10 days' prior written notice to the unit owner given by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the address of the unit owner shown on the books of the association.

68.13-9. Form of statement of condominium lien. A statement of condominium lien is sufficient for the purposes of this regulation if it contains the following information and is substantially in the following form:

68.14-1. Insurance. An association shall obtain insurance for the property against loss or damage by fire and such other hazards for not less than full replacement value of the property insured and a liability policy covering all claims commonly insured against. Insurance coverage shall be written on the property in the name of the association as trustee for each of the unit owners in the percentages established in the declaration. Premiums shall be common expenses. Such insurance shall not cover the contents of units, the improvements the unit owner has made, or liabilities arising strictly within the individual units.

68.14-2. Insurance proceeds shall first be disbursed by the trustees for the repair or restoration of the damaged common elements, and the unit owners and mortgagees shall not be entitled to receive payment of any portion of the insurance proceeds unless the association has determined not to rebuild, or the Land Commission has ordered partition of the condominium property, or there is a surplus of insurance proceeds after the common elements have been completely repaired or restored.

68.14-3. Provisions for the insurance described in sec. 14-1 and sec. 14-2 shall be made without prejudice to the right of each unit owner to obtain insurance for his or her own unit, for its contents, the improvements the unit owner has made, and liabilities that the unit owner wishes to be insured against.

68.15-1. Repair or Reconstruction. A declaration shall provide for the repair or reconstruction of the common elements in the event of damage to all or part of the common elements of the condominium.

(a) Unless otherwise provided in the declaration, in the event of damage to or destruction of common elements of a condominium, the association shall promptly undertake to repair or reconstruct it to a condition compatible with the remainder of the condominium. All cost of the repair or reconstruction in excess of available insurance proceeds shall be a common expense.
(b) However, if a condominium is damaged to an extent more than the available insurance proceeds, the condominium shall be subject to an action for partition upon obtaining the written consent of all the unit owners. In the case of partition, the net proceeds of sale together with any net proceeds of insurance shall be considered as one fund and shall be divided among all unit owners in proportion to their percentage interests in the common elements, and shall be distributed in accordance with the priority of interests in each unit.

68.16-1. Eminent Domain. Definition. In this section, “taking under the power of eminent domain” includes any sale in settlement of any pending or threatened condemnation proceeding.

68.16-2. Allocation of award; provisions in declaration or bylaws. A declaration or bylaws may provide for an allocation of any award for a taking under the power of eminent domain of all or part of the condominium. A declaration or bylaws also may provide for:

(a) Reapportionment or other change of the percentage interests appurtenant to each unit remaining after any taking; and
(b) Rebuilding, relocation or restoration of any improvements so taken in whole or in part.

68.16-3. Allocation of award, in absence of provisions in declaration or bylaws. Unless otherwise provided for in a declaration, bylaws or contract, any damages for a taking of all or part of a condominium shall be awarded as follows:

(a) Every unit owner is entitled to the entire award for the taking of all or part of their respective unit and for consequential damages to their unit.
(b) Any award for the taking of limited common elements shall be allocated to the unit owners of the units to which the use of those limited common elements is restricted in proportion to their respective percentage interests in the common elements.
(c) In the event no reconstruction is undertaken, any award for the taking of common elements shall be allocated to all unit owners in proportion to their respective percentage interests in the common elements.

68.16-4. Reconstruction following taking. Following the taking of all or a part of the common elements, an association shall promptly undertake to restore the improvements of the common elements to an architectural whole compatible with the existing structure. Any costs of such restoration in excess of the condemnation award shall be a common expense. However, if the taking under the power of eminent domain is to the extent where the remaining condominium portion has been diminished to the extent that reconstruction or restoration is not practical, a condominium shall be subject to an action for partition upon obtaining the written consent of all the unit owners. In the case of partition, the net proceeds of sale, together with any net proceeds of the award for taking, shall be considered as one fund and shall be divided among all unit owners in proportion to their percentage interest in the common elements and shall be distributed in accordance with the priority of interests in each unit.

68.16-5. Adjustment of percentage interests following taking. Following the taking of all or a part of any unit, the percentage interests appurtenant to the unit shall be adjusted in proportion as provided in the condominium instruments or bylaws. The association promptly shall prepare and record an amendment to the declaration reflecting the new percentage interests appurtenant to the unit.

68.16-6. Priority in distribution of damages for each unit. All damages for each unit shall be distributed in accordance with the priority of interests at law or in equity in each respective unit.

68.16-7. Preservation of the right of appeal. The owner of each unit taken shall have the individual right of appeal of the necessity of taking and of the condemnation award made for the taking. An association shall have the right of appeal of the necessity and the right of appeal of the condemnation award made for the taking of the common elements. An appeal by an association shall be binding upon the individual unit owners for the necessity of taking or the condemnation award made for the taking of the common elements.

The unit owners having an interest in the ownership of limited common elements may...
individually or as a group appeal the necessity of taking or the condemnation award made for the taking of the limited common elements.

68.17-1. Books and Receipts and Expenditures. Record keeping; availability for examination. An association shall keep detailed, accurate records using standard bookkeeping procedures of the receipts and expenditures affecting the common elements, specifying and itemizing the maintenance and repair expenses of the common elements and any other expenses incurred. The records and the vouchers authorizing the payments shall be available for examination by the unit owners at convenient hours.

68.17-2. Disclosure information. Within 10 days after a request by a seller other than the declarant, an association shall furnish the information necessary to the seller to comply with section twenty-three. The seller shall pay the association the actual costs of furnishing the information.

68.18-1. Separate Taxation. Every unit and its percentage of undivided interest in the common elements shall be deemed to be a parcel and all be subject to separate assessments and taxation by the Tribe for all types of taxes authorized by law including, but not limited to, special levies based on the value of property and special assessments. Neither the building, the property nor any of the common elements shall be deemed to be a parcel separate from the unit.

68.18-2. The rights, duties and obligations of unit owners under this regulation shall inure to and be binding upon grantees under tax deeds and persons acquiring title by foreclosure of tax liens and their successors in interest.

68.19-1. Mechanics’ and Materialmens’ Liens. Subsequent to recording a declaration under this law and while the property remains subject to this regulation, any and all liens will exist only against individual units and the percentage of undivided interest in the common elements appurtenant to such unit, in the same manner and under the same conditions in every respect as liens or encumbrances may arise or be created upon or against any other separate parcel of real property subject to individual ownership.

68.19-2. Any mechanics’ lien or materialmen’s lien arising as a result of repairs to or improvements of a unit by a unit owner shall be a lien only against the unit.

68.19-3. Any mechanics’ or materialmen’s lien arising as a result of repairs to or improvements of the common elements, if authorized in writing by the association, shall be paid by the association as a common expense and until paid shall be a lien against each unit in proportion to its percentage interest in the common elements. On payment of the proportionate amount by any unit owner to the lien, the unit owner shall be entitled to a release of his or her unit from the lien and the association shall not be entitled to assess his or her unit for payment of the remaining amount due for the repairs or improvements.

68.20-1. Liability. An action for tort alleging a wrong done by any agent or employee of a declarant or of an association, or in connection with the condition of any portion of a condominium which a declarant or an association has the responsibility to maintain, shall be brought against the declarant or the association, as the case may be. No unit owner shall be precluded from bringing such an action by virtue of ownership of an undivided interest in the common elements or by reason of its membership in the association or its status as an officer.

68.20-2. A judgment for money against an association shall be a lien against any property owned by the association, and against each of the condominium units in proportion to the liability of each unit owner for common expenses as established under the declaration in an amount not exceeding the market value of the unit but not against any other property of any unit owner.

68.20-3. All actions arising from this section still follow the procedures described in section twenty-six.

68.21-1. Personal Application. All unit owners, tenants of owners, employees of owners and tenants or any other persons that in any manner use property or any part thereof subject to this law shall be subject to this law, the overrule contract, and to the declaration and bylaws of the association adopted under this regulation.

68.21-2. All agreements, decisions and determinations lawfully made by an association shall be deemed to be binding upon all unit owners.

68.22-1. Easements and Encroachments. Presumption as to existing physical boundaries. This presumption applies only to encroachments within the condominium.

68.22-2. Encroachment as result of authorized construction, reconstruction or repair. If any portion of any common element encroaches on any unit or if any portion of a unit encroaches on any common element, as a result of the duly authorized construction, reconstruction or repair of a building, a valid easement for the encroachment and for the maintenance of the same shall exist so long as the building stands.

68.22-3. Easements included in grant of unit. A grant or other disposition of a condominium unit shall include and grant and be subject to any easement arising under the provisions of this article without specific or particular reference to the easement.

68.22-4. Association’s right of entry to make repairs. An association shall have an irrevocable right and an easement to enter units to make repairs to common elements when the repairs reasonably appear necessary for public safety or to prevent damage to other portions of the condominium. Except in cases involving manifest danger to public safety or property, an association shall make a reasonable effort to give notice to the owner of any unit to be entered for the purpose of such repairs. No entry by an association for the purposes specified in this section may be considered a trespass.

68.22-5. Easements through the common elements of a condominium shall be requested at the Division of Land Management. The Division of Land Management shall notify the unit owners of the request for an easement; and they shall have 15 days from delivery of the notification in which to present their views and opinions as regards the request.

68.23-2. Change in material following delivery to purchaser. Any material furnished under sec. 23-1 may not be changed or amended following delivery to a purchaser, if the change or amendment would affect materially the rights of the purchaser, without first obtaining approval of the purchaser. A copy of amendments shall be delivered promptly to the purchaser.

68.23-3. Purchaser's right to rescind contract for sale. Any purchaser may at any time within 5 business days following receipt of all information required under sec. 23-1 and within 5 business days following receipt of all information required under sec. 23-2, rescind in writing a contract of sale without stating any reason and without any liability on his or her part, and the purchaser is entitled to the return of any deposits made in account of the contract.

68.23-4. Untrue statement or omission of material fact. Any seller who in disclosing information required under sec. 23-1 makes any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make statements made not misleading shall be liable to any person purchasing a unit from him or her. However, no action may be maintained to enforce any liability created under this section unless brought within 6 months after facts constituting a cause of action are or should have been discovered.

68.23-5. Waiver of purchaser's right. Rights of purchasers under this section may not be waived in the contract of sale and any attempt to waive is void. However, if the purchaser proceeds to closing, the purchaser’s right under this section to rescind is terminated.

68.25-1. Provisions Requiring Employment of Declarant. Any provision of a declaration or other instrument made pursuant to this law, except for the overrule contract, which requires the owner of a unit to engage or employ the declarant or any subsidiary or affiliate of the declarant for the purpose of effecting a sale or lease of any unit is void. 2-4. In the event of a conflict between a provision of this policy and a provision of another policy, the provisions of this policy shall control. Provided that, nothing in this policy is intended to repeal or modify any existing law, ordinance, policy, regulation, rule, resolution or motion.

3. An act or omission of a third party, including but not limited to a trespasser, other than:
   - An employee or agent of the person asserting the defense; or

(e) Any person who is an owner, past owner, or purchaser of property and who can establish by a preponderance of the evidence that at the time the property was acquired by the person, the property had no knowledge or reason to know that the property was contaminated, or that a hazardous substance was discharged or disposed of on or at the property.
