TO: Oneida Business Committee
FROM: David P. Jordan, LOC Chairperson
DATE: June 27, 2018
RE: Children's Code Implementation Quarterly Update

The Children's Code was adopted by the Oneida Business Committee (OBC) through resolution BC-07-26-17-J with the purpose of providing for the welfare, care, and protection of Oneida children through the preservation of the family unit, by assisting parents in fulfilling their responsibilities as well as facilitating the return of Oneida children to the jurisdiction of the Nation, and acknowledging the customs and traditions of the Nation when raising an Oneida child. Oneida Business Committee resolution BC-07-26-17-J requires the Children's Code to become effective fifteen (15) months after the adoption of the Fiscal Year 2018 budget.

On July 26, 2017, the OBC directed that a full implementation plan be submitted to the OBC, with quarterly reports submitted thereafter, and a one (1) year review of the Children's Code itself as it relates to the full implementation.

On September 13, 2017, the OBC reviewed and accepted the Children's Code Implementation plan. This implementation plan is to be used as a guideline for the affected entities to prepare for the successful implementation of the Children's Code. This implementation plan is not exhaustive, and the OBC can modify the effective date of the Children's Code and implementation plan as it deems necessary to successfully implement the Children's Code.

On October 8, 2017, the General Tribal Council adopted the Fiscal Year 2018 budget through resolution GTC-10-08-17-A. In accordance with Oneida Business Committee resolution BC-07-26-17-J the Children's Code will become effective on January 8, 2019.

The Oneida Business Committee reviewed and accepted the first Children's Code Implementation Quarterly Update on December 27, 2017, and the second Children's Code Implementation Quarterly Update on March 28, 2018.

This memorandum serves as the third quarterly update to the OBC on the implementation of the Children's Code.

The OFC requests the following assistance from the Oneida Business Committee in regards to the implementation of the Children's Code:

- Recruitment of Guardians ad Litem (GALs).

ONEIDA INDIAN CHILD WELFARE DEPARTMENT

Accomplishments

In accordance with the approved implementation plan, the Indian Child Welfare Department (ICW) was able to complete the following in time for the third quarterly report:

- Hiring of Additional Staff.
 - All ICW Social Workers/Case Managers have been hired.
 - The paralegal position was drafted and sent to the Human Resource Department for review and approval. The job description has been approved, and was posted on June 13, 2018.
 - ICW reviewed and offered input on Indigenous Healer Practitioner job description.
- Training.

- Training for current and new staff is under way, both internally through a newly developed orientation and through our partnership with Wisconsin Child Welfare Professional Development System (WCWPDS).
- Memorandums of Understanding.
 - Outagamie County. There have been ongoing meetings towards finalizing the memorandum of understanding (MOU) and 161 Agreement negotiations with Outagamie County.
 - Oneida Police Department. In collaboration with the Oneida Police Department (OPD), ICW has drafted an MOU for the departments, and is awaiting final legal references prior to sending to OPD for their final review.
- Miscellaneous.
 - Acquired an Intake phone line to be used for emergency contacts with the County and OPD.

Goals

In accordance with the approved implementation plan, ICW has the following goals for the next quarter:

- Hiring of Additional Staff.
 - ICW would like to have the paralegal position hired.
- Memorandum of Agreement.
 - ICW and OPD hope to finalize an MOU that will detail the relationship, roles, communication, and responsibilities of the two departments.
 - ICW would like to have the MOU and 161 Agreement finalized with Outagamie County.
 - ICW would like to begin negotiations with Brown County regarding an MOU and 161 Agreement.
- Training and Development of Standards.
 - ICW would like to continue training all ICW staff, and also develop the necessary internal policies, procedures, and standards to address issues related to the implementation of the Children's Code.
 - Standards need to be reviewed and adopted for matters such as initial assessments, on-going assessments, and safety.
 - Once the paralegal position is filled, ICW would like to move forward with the development of legal documents that will be necessary.
- Kinship Care.
 - ICW would like to review the Kinship Care program to move towards being inclusive of kinship care that is ordered by the Court in Fiscal Year 2019.
- Database Access.
 - ICW needs to determine whether Wisconsin's Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (eWISACWIS), or another database will be utilized, and what ICW will be responsible for in terms of case management.

Challenges and Barriers to Implementation

The following matters have served as a challenge or barrier for ICW in their efforts to implement the Children's Code:

- Delays in the Hiring Process.

- There were unexpected delays in both the posting and hiring of various ICW positions. It was originally estimated that most of the hiring could be completed within the first three (3) months of implementation, but this timeline was not met.
- Delays in Training and Development.
 - Due to the delays in the hiring of all additional staff that is necessary for the implementation of the Children's Code, there have been delays in the training of staff, the development of standards and policies, and the drafting of legal documents. Additionally, many of the new staff do not possess prior experience with child welfare issues, so more in depth training will be critical.
- Delays in 161 Agreement and MOU Negotiations.
 - ICW has been involved with the negotiations with Outagamie County for a 161 Agreement and MOU. Although negotiation meetings have been occurring, the process has been slower than anticipated due to process on both the Nation's and the County's side. Negotiation meetings with Brown County have not yet begun.
- eWISACWIS.
 - ICW is facing challenges with determining if ICW will have use of Wisconsin's Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (eWISACWIS), or if an alternative database will have to be developed and used.
- The Unknown.
 - Throughout the implementation process, a barrier that has challenged the ICW are the unknown matters that needed to be addressed that were not planned for during the development of the implementation plan, such as additional processes and documentation that will need to be developed, and technical assistance.

Concerns

ICW has the following concerns for the implementation of the Children's Code:

- Effective Date of the Children's Code.
 - The Oneida Business Committee adopted the Children's Code through resolution BC-07-26-17-J, which required the law to become effective fifteen (15) months after the adoption of the Fiscal Year 2018 budget. The Fiscal Year 2018 budget was adopted by the General Tribal Council through resolution GTC-10-08-17-A. This means the Children's Code will become effective on January 8, 2019.
 - ICW is concerned that because of the delays in hiring, delays in training and development, and the delays in the negotiations of the various memorandums of agreement and 161 Agreements, ICW will not be prepared to implement the Children's Code by January 8, 2019.

Requests of the Oneida Business Committee

ICW requests the following assistance from the Oneida Business Committee in regards to the implementation of the Children's Code:

- eWISACWIS.
 - If the Nation's ICW Department is granted full eWISACWIS access by Wisconsin, then the Oneida Business Committee will have to determine if this is a system the Nation wants to utilize for child welfare matters.
- Approval of Various Standards.

- ICW is currently working on the development of various standards and policies. The Oneida Business Committee can assist the implementation of the Children’s Code by approving the standards to be utilized once the Children’s Code is fully implemented and the Nation is assuming jurisdiction over these matters.
- Supportive Services.
 - Once the Children’s Code is fully implemented and ICW is operating independently, there may be a future need for supportive services if it is determined there was a loss of resources.
- Understanding.
 - ICW asks the Oneida Business Committee for support and understanding that the implementation of the Children’s Code is a very involved and complicated process, and although it is taking time to complete, ICW is approaching the implementation of this law with great care and thoughtfulness in order to ensure the successful implementation.

161 AGREEMENT NEGOTIATION TEAM

The OBC reviewed the draft 161 Agreement and on September 13, 2017, the OBC made a motion to accept the update and changes to the draft 161 agreement as information, and directed the negotiating team composed of representatives from the Law Office, Governmental Services, and Intergovernmental Affairs & Communications, to begin negotiations with Outagamie County followed by Brown County.

Accomplishments

The 161 Agreement Negotiation Team has completed the following in time for the third quarterly report:

- Outagamie County Negotiations.
 - Negotiations with Outagamie Court for an MOU and a 161 Agreement have been finalized and returned to Outagamie Court for final approval.
 - The MOU and 161 Agreement will be ready for formal signature.
- Brown County Negotiations.
 - A copy of the proposed 161 Agreement and memorandum of understanding has been provided to Brown County.
 - Discussions and negotiations regarding the matters will be scheduled for the near future.

Goals

In accordance with the approved implementation plan, the 161 Agreement Negotiation Team has the following goals for the next quarter:

- Outagamie County Negotiations.
 - Schedule a meeting between leadership in the Nation and leadership in Outagamie County for the final approval and signing of the agreements.
 - The 161 Agreement Negotiation Team is interested in pursuing a formal signing ceremony between the two governments to formally recognize the agreement and the importance of providing support and caring for children and families.
- Brown County Negotiations.
 - Successfully negotiate and secure a 161 Agreement and memorandum of understanding with Brown County.

Challenges and Barriers to Implementation

The 161 Agreement Negotiation Team has the following concerns for the implementation of the Children's Code:

- Scheduling Conflicts.
 - The largest challenge the 161 Agreement Negotiation Team has faced thus far in the implementation of the Children's Code has been coordinating schedules with officials from Brown County and Outagamie County.

Requests of the Oneida Business Committee

The 161 Agreement Negotiation Team requests the following assistance from the Oneida Business Committee in regards to the implementation of the Children's Code:

- Formal Signing Ceremony.
 - The 161 Agreement Negotiation Team requests the all members of the Oneida Business Committee make themselves available for a formal signing ceremony with leadership from Outagamie County to formally recognize the 161 Agreement and MOU between the two governments.

SECTION 5. CONTENTS OF THE LEGISLATION

A. Replace Personnel Commission with Trial Court in Appeals Process. If a member of the military feels they have been wrongly denied employment, reemployment, or benefit under this law, they can file a complaint with the Area Manager who oversees that department. If they are unsatisfied with the Area Manager’s decision, they can file an appeal. Originally, Chart 1. Appeals Process

these appeals were filed with the Personnel Commission. Instead, appeals will now be filed with the Judiciary Trial Court. The appeals process in this law has been revised to remove references to the Oneida Personnel Commission and replace them with the Trial Court:

- i. Definitions. A definition for “Trial Court” has been added [see Military Service Employee Protection Act, 2 O.C. 213.3(1)].
- ii. If the area manager does not resolve a complaint within ten (10) business days, an individual may now take their complaint to the Trial Court, rather than the Personnel Commission [see Military Service Employee Protection Act, 2 O.C. 213.11-5].
- iii. If an employee appeals the area manager’s decision under this law, the appeal must now be filed with the Trial Court instead of the Personnel Commission [see Military Service Employee Protection Act, 2 O.C. 213.11-6].
- iv. The Trial Court, rather than the Personnel Commission, must notify the Human Resources Department within one (1) business day when an employee files an appeal [see Military Service Employee Protection Act, 2 O.C. 213.11-6].
- v. The Trial Court, rather than the Personnel Commission, may award relief by requiring the Nation to comply with the provisions of this law or by requiring the Nation to compensate for any back pay or loss of benefits [see Military Service Employee

64 Protection Act, 2 O.C. 213.11-7].

65 B. Minor Formatting Revisions. Minor revisions were made to reflect current drafting and 66 formatting standards. For example, “Tribe” has been replaced with “Nation.”

67

68 SECTION 6. EFFECT ON EXISTING LEGISLATION

69 A. As a result of the dissolution of the Personnel Commission and creation of the Personnel Selection
70 Committee, the following laws were also amended on an emergency basis to replace references to the 71 Personnel Commission:

72 i. Oneida Personnel Policies and Procedures [see BC Resolution 04-25-18-E].

73 ii. Oneida Judiciary Rules of Civil Procedure [see BC Resolution 04-15-18-F].

74 iii. Oneida Employee Protection Policy [see BC Resolution 04-15-18-G].

75

76 SECTION 7. EFFECTS ON EXISTING RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES, OR OBLIGATIONS

77 A. Trial Court Filing Fees. The Personnel Commission did not charge a fee to file appeals relating to 78 this law. The Trial Court, however, charges a $50 filing fee for general civil cases. Therefore,
79 individuals may now be required to pay filing fees in order to have their cases heard under this law.

80 i. Fee Waiver. If individuals are unable to pay the filing fee, they may request a fee waiver from 81 the court for the following reasons: Unemployed, Health/Medical, Indigent (below poverty 82 level), or other reasons.

83 B. Pending Cases. At the time the emergency amendments were adopted on 4/25/18, five cases were 84 pending before the Personnel Commission. These cases, and any associated timelines, were placed on 85 hold until emergency amendments to this and related laws were adopted. At the time this analysis
86 was drafted, it is not known if any of the five pending cases involved the Military Service Employee
87 Protection Act.

88

89 SECTION 8. ENFORCEMENT AND ACCOUNTABILITY

90 A. If an individual is denied employment, reemployment or benefits under this law, they may appeal to 91 the Area Manager and Trial Court. The Area Manager or Trial Court may award relief, including:
92 compensating the individual for lost wages or benefits and requiring compliance with this law [see
93 Military Service Employee Protection Act, 2 O.C. 213.11-5].

94

95 SECTION 9. OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

96 A. Use of Citations. This law includes over twenty-five (25) citations referencing other sections of the 97 same law. For example: “Except as provided under 213.6-6, an employee referred to in 213.6-1 shall 98 notify...” [see Military Service Employee Protection Act, 2 O.C. 213.6-5]. The extensive use of 99 citations makes provisions of this law difficult to read. Since this law was adopted in 2007, the 100 Nation’s drafting style has evolved to avoid extensive use of citations. The LOC may want to revise 101 provisions of this law to replace citations and improve readability.

102 B. Please refer to the fiscal impact statement for any fiscal impacts.

299 (a) When a person is absent from a position of employment for more than ninety (90) days

309 by the TribeNation throughout the period of service. Any payment to a retirement or pension 310 plan shall be made during the period beginning with the date of reemployment and whose

314 the employee's compensation during the period of service shall be computed:

- 315 (a) at the rate the employee would have received but for the period of service;
- 316 (b) in the case that the determination of such rate is not reasonably certain, on the basis of
- 317 the employee's average rate of compensation during the twelve (12) month period
- 318 immediately preceding such period (or, if shorter, the period of employment immediately
- 319 preceding such period).

320 213.10-4. Pension Plan. When a person who participates in a pension plan is reemployed after a

322 obligation to provide the benefits the employee would have received had they not taken a leave
323 of absence. The TribeNation shall allocate the amount of the TribeNation's contribution for the 324 person in the same manner and to the same extent the allocation occurred for other employees
325 eligible for the pension plan during the period of service. For purposes of determining the 326 amount of such liability and any obligation of the pension plan, earnings and forfeitures shall not

338 Resources Manager (or designee) within ten (10) workingbusiness days from the day the person
339 received a denial of employment and/or benefits by the Tribe-Nation.

340 213.11-4. If the area manager determines that the action alleged in such complaint occurred, the
341 area manager shall attempt to resolve the complaint by making reasonable efforts to ensure that
342 the person or entity named in the complaint complies with the provisions of this law.

343 213.11-5. If the efforts of the area manager do not resolve the complaint within ten (10)
344 workingbusiness days from the receipt of the employee's complaint, the complainant shall be 345 notified of the results of the area manager's investigation and the complainant's entitlement to

111 reason of service in the military does not exceed five (5) years; and 113 with section 213.6-5.

114 213.6-2. No notice is required under section 213.6-1(a) if it is precluded by military necessity
115 or, under all of the relevant circumstances, the giving of notice is otherwise impossible or 116 unreasonable.

117 213.6-3. When calculating the length of absence under section 213.6-1(b) the Nation shall not 118 include any service:

- 119 (a) that is required, beyond five (5) years, to complete an initial period of obligated 120 service;

- 132 (3) ordered to active duty in support of an “operational mission”, without his or 133 her consent;
- 134 (4) ordered to active duty in support of a “critical mission or requirement” in 135 times other than war or national emergency and when no involuntary call up is in 136 effect; or
- 137 (5) called into Federal service by the President as a member of the National 138 Guard to suppress an insurrection, repel an invasion, or execute the laws of the 139 United States.

140 213.6-4. Nation's Right to Not Reemploy. The Nation is not required to reemploy a person 141 under this law if:

- 142 (a) circumstances have so changed as to make such reemployment impossible or 143 unreasonable;
- 144 (b) in the case of a person entitled to reemployment under section 213.7-1(c), 2103.7-1(d), 145 or section 213.7-2, such employment would impose an undue hardship on the Nation; or
- 146 (c) the employment from which the person leaves is for a brief, non-recurrent period (i.e.
147 seasonal, temporary, limited term) and there is no reasonable expectation that such 148 employment will continue indefinitely or for a significant period.
- 149 (d) the Nation shall have the burden of proving the impossibility or unreasonableness,
150 undue hardship, or the brief or non-recurrent nature of the employment.

151 213.6-5. Except as provided under section 213.6-6, an employee referred to in section 213.6-1
152 shall notify the Nation of the person's intent to return to a position of employment within ninety 153 (90) days of separation of active duty service and within thirty-one (31) days from completion of 154 training for reservists. The Nation shall, as soon as practicable after receiving notice, make 155 arrangements with the employee for an employment return date.

156 213.6-6. A person who is hospitalized for, or recovering from, an illness or injury incurred in,
157 or aggravated during, the performance of service in the military shall, at the end of the period
158 that is necessary for the person to recover from such illness or injury notify the Nation of the 159 person's intent to return to a position of employment. Such period of recovery may not exceed 160 two (2) years, unless the minimum time required to accommodate the circumstances beyond such 161 person's control is longer than two years, making reporting within the period specified
162 impossible or unreasonable.

163 213.6-7. A person who fails to report for reemployment within the appropriate period shall not 164 automatically forfeit such person's entitlement to the benefits referred to in section 213.6-1 but 165 shall be subject to the Nation's policies and procedures pertaining to discipline with respect to 166 absence from scheduled work.

167 213.6-8. A person who has notified the Nation of the person's intent to return to a position of 168 employment in accordance with section 213.6-5 shall, upon the request of the Nation, provide 169 documentation to establish that:

- 170 (a) the notification is timely;

Draft 1
2018 06 06

171 (b) the time limits in section 213.6-1(b) have not been exceeded, except as permitted under 172 section 213.6-3; and

173 (c) the person's entitlement to benefits has not been terminated pursuant to section 213.4.
174 213.6-9. The timing, frequency, and duration of a person's training or service, or the nature of 175 such training or service (including voluntary service) in the military, shall not be a basis for 176 denying protection of this law if the service does not exceed the limitations set forth under 177 section 213.6-3 and the notice and notification requirements established in this section are met.

178 213.6-10. The Human Resources Department shall inform employees of their rights, benefits, 179 and obligations under this law and shall provide assistance to employees with respect to the 180 employment and reemployment benefits to which they are entitled under this law.

181

182 213.7. Reemployment Positions

183 213.7-1. A person entitled to reemployment under section 213.6 shall be promptly reemployed
184 in a position of employment in accordance with the following order of priority:

185 (a) In the case of a person whose period of service in the military was for less than ninety-
186 one (91) days:

187 (1) in the position which the person would have been employed if the continuous
188 employment of such person had not been interrupted by such service, the duties of 189 which the person is qualified to perform; or

190 (2) in the position which the person was employed on the date of the 191 commencement of the service in the military, only if the person is not qualified to 192 perform the duties of the position referred to under section 213.7-1(a)(1) after 193 reasonable efforts by the Nation to qualify the person.

194 (b) In the case of a person whose period of service in the military was for more than ninety 195 (90) days:

196 (1) in the position which the person would have been employed if the continuous
197 employment of such person had not been interrupted by such service, or a position
198 of like seniority, status and pay, the duties of which the person is qualified to 199 perform; or

200 (2) in the position which the person was employed on the date of the 201 commencement of the service, or a position of like seniority, status and pay, the 202 duties of which the person is qualified to perform, only if the person is not
203 qualified to perform the duties of the position referred to under section 213.7-
204 1(b)(1) after reasonable efforts by the Nation to qualify the person.

205 (c) In the case of a person who has a disability incurred in, or aggravated during, service,
206 and after reasonable efforts by the Nation to accommodate the disability, is not qualified
207 due to such disability to be employed in the position of employment in which the person
208 would have been employed if the continuous employment of such person with the Nation
209 had not been interrupted by such service:

210 (1) in any other position which is equivalent in seniority, status, and pay, the 211 duties of which the person is qualified to perform or can become qualified to 212 perform with reasonable efforts by the Nation; or

213 (2) in a position which is the nearest approximation to a position referred to in (1)
214 in terms of seniority, status, and pay consistent with such person's case.

Draft 1
2018 06 06

215 (d) In the case of a person who is not qualified to become reemployed under section 213.7-
216 1(a) - (c) and cannot become qualified, even with reasonable efforts by the Nation, in any 217 other position which is the nearest approximation to a position which such person is 218 qualified to perform, with full seniority.

219 213.7-2. If two or more persons are entitled to reemployment in the same position and more than 220 one of them has reported for reemployment, the person who left the position first shall have the 221 prior right to reemployment in that position.

222 213.7-3. A person entitled to reemployment who is not reemployed because of section 213.7-2
223 shall be entitled to reemployment in any other position referred to in section 213.7-1, remaining 224 consistent with the circumstances of such person's case, in the order of priority set out in the 225 appropriate section, with full seniority.

226

227 213.8. Benefits of Persons Absent from Employment for Military Service

228 213.8-1. A person who is reemployed under this law is entitled to the seniority and other
229 benefits determined by seniority that the person had on the date of the commencement of service
230 in the military plus the additional seniority and benefits that such person would have attained if 231 the person had remained continuously employed.

232 213.8-2. A person who is absent from a position of employment by reason of service in the 233 military shall be:

234 (a) deemed to be on a leave of absence while performing such service; and

235 (b) entitled to other benefits not determined by seniority as are generally provided by the 236 Nation to employees having similar seniority, status, and pay who are on leave of absence 237 under a contract, agreement, policy, practice, or plan in effect at the commencement of 238 such service or established while such person performs such service.

239 213.8-3. A person who

240 (a) is absent from an employment position because of service in the military, and

241 (b) knowingly provides written notice of intent not to return to a position of employment
242 after service in the military, is not entitled to benefits under this section.

243 The Nation has the burden of proving that a person knowingly provided written notice of intent
244 not to return to a position after service in the military and was aware of the specific benefits to be 245 lost.

246 213.8-4. A person on leave of absence for military service shall not be entitled to any benefits to 247 which the person would not otherwise be entitled if the person had remained continuously 248 employed.

249 213.8-5. A person may be required to pay the Nation's cost, if any, of any funded benefit
250 continued to the extent other employees on leave of absence are so required.

251 213.8-6. A person who is reemployed under this law shall only be terminated in accordance with 252 the Nation's laws and policies governing employment.

253 213.8-7. Any person whose employment is interrupted by military service shall be permitted to 254 use, during such period of service, any vacation or personal time accrued by the person before
255 the commencement of such service. The Nation may not require any person to use vacation or 256 personal time during such period of service.

257 213.8-8. The Nation shall grant an employee who is a reserve member an unpaid temporary 258 leave of absence in order to perform funeral honors duty. Employees may use vacation or

Draft 1
2018 06 06

259 personal time to perform funeral honors duty if eligible.

260

261 213.9. Health Plans

262 213.9-1. If a person, or a person's dependents, has coverage under a health plan through the 263 Nation and such person is on a leave of absence for military service, the plan shall provide that 264 the coverage may be continued. The maximum period of coverage of a person and the person's 265 dependents shall be the lesser of:

266 (a) the eighteen (18) month period beginning on the date on which the person's absence
267 begins; or

268 (b) the day after the date on which the person fails to return to a position of employment, 269 as determined under section 213.6-5.

270 213.9-2. A person who elects to continue health-plan coverage may be required to pay not more 271 than the amount paid by other employees who take a leave of absence, except that in the case of 272 a person who serves in the military for less than thirty-one (31) days, such person may not be 273 required to pay more than the employee share, if any, for such coverage.

274 213.9-3. If a person's health plan is terminated by reason of military service, an exclusion or 275 waiting period may not be imposed in connection with the reinstatement of such coverage upon 276 reemployment if an exclusion or waiting period would not have been imposed had coverage of 277 such person not been terminated as a result of such service.

278 (a) This shall apply to the person who is reemployed and to his or her dependents who are 279 covered under the plan with the reinstatement of coverage of such person.

280 (b) This shall not apply to the coverage of any illness or injury incurred in, or aggravated 281 during, performance of service in the military.

282

283 213.10. Retirement and Pension Plans

284 213.10-1. Each period served by a person in the military shall, upon reemployment, be deemed 285 to constitute service for the purpose of determining the nonforfeitability of the person's accrued
286 benefits and for the purpose of determining the accrual of benefits under a retirement or pension 287 plan.

288 (a) When a person is absent from a position of employment for more than ninety (90) days
289 and is reemployed, the Nation may require documentation before treating the person as not 290 having incurred a break in service for retirement or pension plan purposes under this 291 section.

292 213.10-2. A person reemployed under this law shall be entitled to accrued benefits that are 293 contingent on the making of, or derived from, employee contributions or elective deferrals if the 294 person makes payment to a retirement or pension plan with respect to such contributions or 295 deferrals. If the employee makes up the contributions, the Nation shall make up any required
296 matching contributions. No such payment may exceed the amount the person would have been 297 permitted or required to contribute had the person remained continuously employed by the 298 Nation throughout the period of service. Any payment to a retirement or pension plan shall be 299 made during the period beginning with the date of reemployment and whose duration is three (3)
300 times the period of the person's service in the military, such payment period not to exceed five 301 (5) years.

302 213.10-3. For purposes of computing the Nation's liability or the employee's contributions, the

Draft 1
2018 06 06

303 employee's compensation during the period of service shall be computed:

304 (a) at the rate the employee would have received but for the period of service;

305 (b) in the case that the determination of such rate is not reasonably certain, on the basis of
306 the employee's average rate of compensation during the twelve (12) month period
307 immediately preceding such period (or, if shorter, the period of employment immediately
308 preceding such period).

309 213.10-4. Pension Plan. When a person who participates in a pension plan is reemployed after a
310 period of military service, the Nation shall be liable to the pension plan for funding any
311 obligation to provide the benefits the employee would have received had they not taken a leave
312 of absence. The Nation shall allocate the amount of the Nation's contribution for the person in 313 the same manner and to the same extent the allocation occurred for other employees eligible for 314 the pension plan during the period of service. For purposes of determining the amount of such 315 liability and any obligation of the pension plan, earnings and forfeitures shall not be included.

316

317 213.11. Enforcement of Employment or Reemployment Rights

318 213.11.1. The Nation shall notify, in writing, any person who has been denied employment, 319 reemployment, or benefits under this law.

320 213.11-2. A person may file a complaint whenever such person claims that:

321 (a) he or she is entitled to employment or reemployment rights or benefits with respect to 322 employment by the Nation; or

323 (b) the Nation has failed or refused to comply with the provisions of this law.

324 213.11-3. Such complaint shall be in writing, contain a summary of the allegations that form the 325 basis for the complaint and be filed with the person's area manager and the Human Resources
326 Manager (or designee) within ten (10) business days from the day the person received a denial of 327 employment and/or benefits by the Nation.

328 213.11-4. If the area manager determines that the action alleged in such complaint occurred, the
329 area manager shall attempt to resolve the complaint by making reasonable efforts to ensure that
330 the person or entity named in the complaint complies with the provisions of this law.

331 213.11-5. If the efforts of the area manager do not resolve the complaint within ten (10) business
332 days from the receipt of the employee's complaint, the complainant shall be notified of the 333 results of the area manager's investigation and the complainant's entitlement to refer the 334 complaint to the Trial Court. One extension of no more than five (5) business days may be 335 requested of and granted by the Human Resources Manager (or designee) at his or her discretion.

336 213.11-6. If an employee appeals the area manager's decision, the appeal must be filed with the 337 Trial Court within ten (10) business days of the employee's receipt of the Area Manager's 338 decision. The Trial Court shall notify the Human Resources Manager (or designee) within one 339 (1) business day when an employee files an appeal.

340 213.11-7. Remedies. In any action relating to this law, relief may be awarded as follows:

341 (a) Require the Nation to comply with the provisions of this law; and/or

342 (b) Require the Nation to compensate the person for any loss of wages or benefits suffered
343 by reason of the Nation's failure to comply with the provisions of this law.

344 213.11-8. Any compensation awarded shall be in addition to, and shall not diminish, any of the 345 other benefits provided for under this law.
