

Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin

Oneidas bringing several hundred bags of corn to Washington's starving army at Valley Forge, after the colonists had consistently refused to aid them.

UGWA DEMOLUM YATEHE
Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States was made possible.

BC Resolution 10-13-10-B

Encouraging Tribal Employees to Participate in Political Process

WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin is a federally recognized Indian government and a treaty tribe recognized by the laws of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, the Oneida General Tribal Council is the governing body of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin; and

WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee has been delegated the authority of Article IV of the Oneida Tribal Constitution by the Oneida General Tribal Council; and

WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee encourages all tribal citizens and employees to become part of the political process. The need to continue to participate in the electoral process and elect leadership who will represent the Tribe's issues and concerns at all levels of government is imperative.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, employees are allowed up to one (1) hour of paid work time to leave their work sites depending on the location of the polling site, to get out and vote for Oneida Tribal, local, state and federal primary and general elections. Employees are required to get prior approval from their department manager or supervisor to ensure adequate coverage in their respective department.
