

Oneida Environmental Area Community Program Changes in effect during Covid-19 Public Health Emergency As of April 4, 2020
Little Bear Development Center	Closed-Building is completely closed to staff and public.
Land Management Building (Oneida Conservation offices)	Closed to Public-Minimal Environmental Area staff are working from the Land building offices using social distancing guidelines. Environmental Area's mail is being delivered here.
Pet Licenses	By email only, fee waived-Contact Sanitarian for application form at 920-370-3047 vmiller@oneidanation.org .
Tree Cutting Permits	By mail or email only, fee waived-Contact Forester at 920-370-6520 or mjohnson@oneidanation.org .
Hazardous Tree Inspections	Contact Forester at 920-370-6520 for an inspection appt. Only Priority 1 designations removals will be completed.
Hunting Licenses	Drop off payments at Land office/ licenses mailed-Contact Conservation for details at 920-869-1450.
Fishing Licenses	Drop off payments at Land office/ licenses mailed-Contact Conservation for details at 920-869-1450.
Funeral Firewood	Contact Conservation for requests at 920-869-1450 or jrasmus1@oneidanation.org .
Wood Chip Delivery	Contact Conservation for requests at 920-869-1450 or jrasmus1@oneidanation.org .
Food Safety Class	In-class courses are cancelled-Employees that need to recertify their existing credential can take a course on the eLearning site by emailing vmiller@oneidanation.org . Anyone that needs to take the full 4 hour class can take an online course and exam option by going to https://oneida-nasn.gov/resources/environmental/take-a-class/ .