Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the Colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States, was made possible.

RESOLUTION # 7-10-91-B

- WHEREAS: the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin is a federally recognized Indian government and a treaty tribe recognized by the laws of the United States, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida General Tribal Council is the governing body of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee has been delegated the authority of Article IV, Section 1 of the Oneida Tribal Constitution by the Oneida General Tribal Council, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin supports the Gwich'in Athabascan Indians of northeast Alaska and northwest Canada in their endeavors to prohibit the development in the calving and post-calving grounds of the Porcupine Caribou Herd, and
- WHEREAS, for thousands of years the ancestors of the Gwich'in Athabascan Indians of northeast Alaska and northwest Canada, have relied on caribou for subsistence, and continue today to subsist on the Porcupine Caribou Herd which is essential to meet the nutritional, cultural and spiritual needs of their people; and
- WHEREAS, the Gwich'in have the inherent right to continue their own way of life; and that this right is recognized and affirmed by civilized nations in the international covenants on human rights. Article I of both the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights read in part:
 "...In no case may a people be deprived of its own means of subsistence."; and
- WHEREAS, the health and productivity of the Porcupine Caribou Herd, and their availability to Gwich'in communities, and the very future of their people are endangered by proposed oil and gas exploration and development in the calving and post-calving grounds in the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge - Coastal Plain; and
- WHEREAS, the entire Gwich'in Nation was called together by their Chiefs in Arctic Village June 5-10 to carefully address this issue and to seek the advice of their elders; and
