GRANT INFORMATION

NAME OF GRANT: Head Start and Indian Housing Child Care Demonstration Project

AGENCY: Department of Health and Human Services

AMOUNT OF GRANT: Approximately $ 150,000 for 17 months

MATCH REQUIRED: None during intial 17 month grant period

PURPOSE: To provide wrap-around care for Headstart children (care before and after Headstart) and expanded child care in a housing development to enable parents/guardians of infants, preschool or school-aged children may seek, retain or train for employment.

NOTE: This grant, submitted by HEADSTART requires that services will continue to be funded after the conclusion of grant funds. Ten of twenty-five points in the budget are assigned based on assurances or firm commitments to continue the project. A budget of $75 to $80,000 is projected per year after the initial start-up phase. Due to the fact that Head Start had planned this expansion at Three Sisters before the grant was announced, this amount is already submitted in Head Start's budget for the coming year.
