

Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin

Oneidas bringing several hundred bags of corn to Washington's starving army at Valley Forge, after the colonists had consistently refused to aid them.

UGWA DEMOLUM YATEHE
Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States was made possible.

BC Resolution 08-14-13-D Amendments to the Per Capita Law

- WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin is a federally recognized Indian government and a treaty tribe recognized by the laws of the United States of America, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida General Tribal Council is the governing body of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin, and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee has been delegated the authority of Article IV of the Oneida Tribal Constitution by the Oneida General Tribal Council, and
- WHEREAS, the Per Capita Law (Law) requires annual per capita payment to be distributed on September 30th of each year and requires all per capita payments to be distributed on the same day, which has caused problems in the past when September 30th falls on a Sunday, and
- WHEREAS, the Law prohibits the attachment of prior per capita payments, and
- WHEREAS, a public meeting on allowing per capita payments to be made on or before September 30th was held on April 18, 2013, and
- WHEREAS, comments received at the public meeting requested that the Law be further amended to allow the attachment of prior per capita payments.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the attached amendments to the Per Capita Law allowing per capita payments to be made on or before September 30th and allowing the attachment of prior per capita payments are hereby adopted and shall be effective October 1, 2013.
