

Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin

BUSINESS COMMITTEE

Oneidas bringing several hundred bags of corn to Washington's starving army at Valley Forge, after the colonists had consistently refused to aid them.

UGWA DEMOLUM YATEHE
Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States was made possible.

BC RESOLUTION # 10-03-01-D Resolution Adopting the Oneida Food Service Code and the Federal Food Code of the U.S. Public Health Service

- WHEREAS, The Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin, hereinafter, the Oneida Nation, is a federally recognized Indian government and a Treaty Tribe recognized by the laws of the United States; and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida General Tribal Council is the governmental body of the Oneida Nation; and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee has been delegated the authority of Article IV, Section I of the Oneida Tribal Constitution by the Oneida General Tribal Council; and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Business Committee has been delegated the authority of Article IV, Section 1 of the Oneida Tribal Constitution by the Oneida General Tribal Council to protect and preserve the sovereignty, rights and resources of the Oneida Tribe; and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin has the authority to regulate and license food service vendors who sell food on tribal property within the exterior boundaries of the reservation pursuant to the sovereign jurisdiction of the Oneida Tribe; and
- WHEREAS, to protect and preserve the health and safety of its citizens and others, the Oneida Nation has duly established an Oneida Environmental, Health and Safety Department; and
- WHEREAS, the Oneida Nation has in operation the Oneida Compliance Division, and it's department, the Licensing Department, to authorize and issue licenses duly recognized by tribal laws, ordinances and codes; and
- WHEREAS, ensuring the safety of the food products sold within the exterior boundaries of the Oneida Reservation is a fundamental responsibility; and

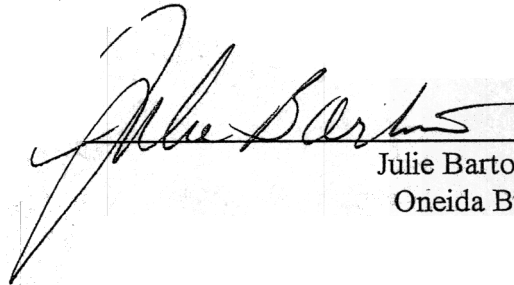

WHEREAS, adopting the Oneida Food Service Code and the Federal Food Code is necessary for the public health, safety and general welfare of the reservation population and for those who visit or work on the reservation; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: that the Oneida Business Committee does hereby adopt by reference and attachment the Oneida Food Service Code and, as guidelines, the Federal Food Code of the U.S. Public Health Service (and as updated every two years) in order to ensure the safety of food products sold within the exterior boundaries of the Oneida Reservation, for implementation within ten (10) days after adoption; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Oneida Food Service Code and the Federal Food Code of the U.S. Public Health Service (and as updated every two years) will be administered and regulated by the Oneida Environmental Health and Safety Department, licensed by the Oneida Compliance Division, Licensing Department, and insurance monitored by Oneida Risk Management for food establishments located on tribal property within the exterior boundaries of the Oneida Reservation and for the independent food vendors selling their food products on tribal property within the exterior boundaries of the Oneida Reservation; and
