July 5, 1960

Visitors – Mr. E. J. Riley
Jerry Van Ryzzin

Chair – Julius Danforth, Vice Chair – Irene Moore, Treasurer – Althea Schuyler, Secretary – Eva Danforth

No business conducted as only nine people were present. Secretary gave report on letter from Lawyers. Mr. Riley explained the business of the annuity and advised putting annuity money in bonds.

Voting rights were discussed concerning boundaries governing voters. The general feeling was that local business should be voted on by residents of Oneida reservation and tribal assets should include any tribal member regardless of residence.

Meeting adjourned.
