Oscar Archiquette gave a report in relation to the conference he and the secretary attended in the office of the Green Bay Press Gazette Editor, Mr. David Yaenger. This meeting pertained to the bad publicity received by the Oneida Indians on the front page of the Press. The editor admitted the Press was indeed at fault and it was further agreed that we would all emphasize the good positive stories and work for better human relations all around. Mr. and Mrs. George Adkins Human Rights Commission, Rev. Fr. James W. Sampter and several others were also present.

Oscar Archiquette also gave a brief report on the Industrial Development meeting held at the Northland Hotel on Monday 10 October, 1967. He indicated that there were approximately ten BIA and Industrial officials present. The IDC was encouraged to work on the policy of leasing land only rather than land with building. It was also deemed necessary that the Oneida tribe form the Oneidas of Wisconsin Industrial Development Corporation with approximately 25 stockholders. Said corporation could then elect a board of directors, a tool to accomplish business. An attorney must also be retained.

Discussion was held on how to manage $350.70 check from wood cut from the housing area. It was decided to purchase second hand swings from Trout Creek School after further investigation into the matter with the Pulaski School Board by Loretta Ellis. The remainder of the above check is to go into the tribal account to defray expenses of those working so hard and devoting a lot of time to Industrial Development. Swings will cost approximately $75.00.
