Special Meeting May 30, 1979 2 p.m.

Business Committee members present: Purcell Powless, Norbert Hill, Loretta Matoxen, Mark Powless, Margaret Doxtater
Others present: Mary Ellen Hayes, Amelia Cornelius, Francis Skenandore, Doug Smith

Mary Ellen presented a proposal for Head Start monies to renovate Head Start building in Green Bay. Mary Ellen stated that the Ameri-Indian Center would pay for half of the insulating. Loretta moved to approve the proposal. Mark seconded. Motion carried, 3 for, 1 opposed.

Mary Ellen also presented a proposal for extension of Handicap funds in the amount of $1680. This would provide for a full time Special Education person instead of the part-time position there now. Loretta moved to approve the extension. Mark seconded. Motion carried, none opposed.

Francis Skenandore presented memo regarding meeting with City Attorney on Industrial Park. He wanted to know if the Tribe wished to follow the Federal, State or will there be a Tribal building code. Loretta moved that the Oneida Tribe adopt the Federal code for building, fire and health and that such code be known as the "Tribal code". Norbert seconded. Motion carried, none opposed.

There was discussion of inspection services, enforcement of codes, and payment of services such as fire calls, rescue calls. Mark moved that the Tribe hire consultants as certified inspectors; in the event of any code violations the tenant will be taken to City Court for ease of convenience. The Tribal attorney, Francis Skenandore, will prosecute. Norbert seconded. Motion carried, none opposed.

Mark moved that the Tribe ask for "no payment for services"; if this is not possible it will be written into the lease that the tenant will be billed directly by the City for services. Loretta seconded. Motion carried, none opposed.

There was discussion of the Housing Authority giving quit claim deeds to tenants. This concerns the mutual help housing and scattered housing. These homes are leased to the tenants for 50 years. When the lease is up it can either be extended or leased to someone else. Mark moved that the Tribe take special interest in the housing. Loretta seconded and recommended that a newsletter be sent to all the occupants of mutual help and scattered housing regarding the status of their homes. Motion carried, none opposed. Mark made a motion to schedule a meeting with the Housing Authority and their lawyer, Mr. Hinkfuss. Loretta seconded. Motion carried, none opposed.

Amelia Cornelius presented her proposal for Title V11. Mark moved to approve. Norbert seconded. Motion carried, none opposed.

Norbert Hill moved to rescind action to accept Alan Crooks resignation and grant him a leave of absence instead. Mark seconded. Motion carried, none opposed.
