SPECIAL MEETING
DECEMBER 3, 1979
7:30 pm

Present: Chrmn. Purcell Powless, Treasurer Wendell McLester, Secretary Wanda Webster. Members: Margaret Doxtater, Mark Powless, Myron Smith.

Also Present: The Grievance Committee; Shirley Hill, Betty Dennison, Caroline Nicholas, Lee McLester, Bobbi Webster, Amelia Cornelius Sandy Narten.

Purpose of the meeting was to make the Business Committee aware of the Recommendations of the Grievance Committee.

Everyone went along with the recommendations. The Grievance Committee did not think that the Health Center policies and procedures are in conflict with the Red book. Mark stated that the Red book is being revised.

The Grievance Committee's final recommendation was that they act as an advisory board to the Health Board to assist in the implementation of the recommendations they made. And to also work with Ted White with the job description for Clinic Administration and Audreys position. Myron thought that someone from the business committee should work with the Grievance Committee.

Wendell made a motion that we concur with the recommendations of the Grievance Committee and that Myron Smith follow up on this. Margaret seconded. Vote was 3 for, 1 oppose, 1 abstention. Motion carried.

The Grievance Committee business will be included in the Health Board minutes.

Respectfully submitted,

Wanda Webster
Secretary, Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wis.
