Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the Colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States was made possible.

SPECIAL MEETING

July 15, 1981
10:00 A.M.

PRESENT: Chairman, Purcell Powless; V-Chairman, Norbert Hill; Loretta Metoxen, Mark Powless, Edwin King Jr.

Presentation was given by Waste Management, remarks were made by Walter Weissbach
Discussion: there would be a need for 150 to 200 acres of land. The Tribe would contract to operate the facility and would receive a royalty on fees. It was requested by the Business Committee that Waste Management provide the Tribe with a solid waste management plan.

SEPTIC AND WELLS:

Audrey stated the drain field at the Nursing Home and Health Center have crust forming under and pushing affluent. There is $5,675.00 available for the project, Sanitation Services, Inc. would do the project, but they need $3,000 down. The laundry at the Nursing Home is too much for the septic system.

Motion was made by Loretta to approve the $5,675.00 for the septic system at the Health Center and Nursing Home. Edwin seconded. Vote was 3 for with 1 abstention (Mark). Motion carried.

VACATION REQUEST:

Edwin King and Anna John requested vacation on July 27 to July 31, 1981.

Motion was made to approve the two requests. Motion carried unanimously.

There will be a meeting with John Powless and Joe Villegomez on July 16, 1981 at 9:00 A.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Norbert Hill, Acting Secretary
