Others: Francis Skenandore, Jerry Hill, Anna John, Van Roy Thomas, Bruce King, Carl Rasmussen

OTDC MEETING - ANNA JOHN/VAN ROY THOMAS

A meeting was scheduled between OTDC and the Oneida Business Committee to try to gain a better understanding and also to try to resolve the problems that OTDC is having with their operation.

Francis Skenandore was directed to meet with Attorney James Presintine and to coordinate the transfer of the Accounting records and financial statements pertinent to the Tobacco operation to the Oneida Tribe.

Public statements were made at the GTC meeting in July '82, against the OTDC board and it's management. Francis will listen to the tapes and give a report on the statements to the Business Committee and OTDC.

Discussion followed on the opening of the Activity Building. Problems exist between Detrie and OTDC. Francis will work with OTDC to open communication lines with Detrie. OTDC is in need of a secretary to turn over the books.

Kathy made a motion to approve a loan for the amount of $1,200.00 for ninety days with no interest to OTDC. Loretta seconded. Motion carried.

CIGARETTE ISSUE

12:10 Mark made a motion to recess. Gordon seconded. Motion carried.
