REPORT ON TRIP TO CANADA - Amos Christjohn

Amos gave a report on the trip he and Bob Smith attended in Canada. Amos stated that the traditional government and the elective government are trying to work together to address the needs and concerns of the Iroquois people. This was the main concern of the meeting. Iroquois people on the Canadian side are getting more pressure on their reserves than on the U.S. side. The people are talking of sharing the education development in Language and Culture with all the Iroquois people. This was the first of a series of meetings to attempt to put an agreement together on the two different governments and to help one another. Bob Smith will also be report to the Business Committee concerning the trip.

10:00 A.M. Bob Christjohn arrived.

170-INCOME MAINTENANCE CONTRACT AND BUDGET - Harriet Reiter

Tony made a motion to approve. Lois seconded.

10:15 A.M. Lloyd Powless arrived.

The Business Committee had lengthy discussion with Harriet and Bob Christjohn on the contract and budget. Motion was carried. Lloyd abstained.

11:40 A.M. Chairman called Executive Session.

The discussion concerned how to handle sick time and vacation time for Business Committee members.
