Because of the help of this Oneida Chief in cementing a friendship between the six nations and the Colony of Pennsylvania, a new nation, the United States, was made possible

INFORMATIONAL MEETING

APRIL 18, 1990

9:30 a.m. Conference Room

Present: Rick Hill, Larry Barton, Lloyd Powless, Sonny King, Amelia Cornelius.

Others: Ervin Ambrosis, Karen Ambrosis, Carol Robelia, Doug Skenandore, Gweneviere Skenandore, Vera Wilson, Arlyce Paulson, David Mau

Discussion on the survey map for Silas Drive and the road to the Skenandore's homes. Those in attendance agreed that the corner stakes were accurately located. An explanation was provided to those present about the property lines and agreed with the survey on the corners.

Carol Robelia and Karen Ambrosis request additional survey stakes be located on the south side between their properties so that a fence can be constructed. Chris Doxtator will be asked to contact David Mau to place more stakes.

Mrs. Ambrosis will work with Al Gerrits, Hobart Town Chairman with Section C as a part of Silas Drive.

The Oneida Business Committee can work with Attorney Gerald L. Hill and Chris Doxtator to complete the papers on Silas Drive.
