Report on the Oneida Hotel Corporation.

- Kathy will keep Amelia informed on special recognition of two employees of the Hotel
- Meeting of the Board will be changed from monthly to quarterly starting in January
- The hotel will be in arbitration with Guepel De Marrs to settle lawsuit for final payment of $120,00. Meeting is scheduled for Dec. 5, 90. Althiemer & Gray are the attorneys.

Discussion on the Sky Box. The Tribe was originally on the list for purchasing the Box, however, when the Tribe did not sign the contract, the Hotel chose to sign and pay for the Box. The Hotel uses the Box for promotion and advertising the Hotel. They use the 14 tickets and have given Chairman Hill the two free tickets. The Hotel did not specify how the tickets were to be used. Rick will need to provide this information to the rest of the BC. The Hotel has used the Box as a part of the marketing plan of the Hotel. It was recommended that Kathy provide the BC with the plan.

Discussion on the reappointment of Janice Hirth on the Hotel Board. After a lengthy discussion, it was requested that the Board considered another name for recommendation in January.

Amelia Cornelius, Secretary
