Election Law Amendments

This item was carried over into the current term by the LOC. Amendments were initially submitted to prohibit Tribal members from running for more than one seat per election or from serving on more than one board, committee or commission at a time, to add enforcement provisions, streamline the role of the Election Board, require a Milwaukee polling site, address election observers and clarify the referendum process. Additional changes had been proposed but were removed based on the public meeting feedback and on GTC action, including proposed term limits and prohibiting Tribal employees from serving as elected or appointed officials.

Amendments to the Election Law have been adopted on an emergency basis in order to comply with the Oneida Tribal Constitutional Amendments recently passed by voters approved by the Secretary of the US Department of Interior. Specifically, the Constitutional amendments lowered the voting age to 18, but still require members to be at least 21 years old before they are eligible to serve on the OBC.

Election Law Emergency Amendments

Amendments to the law were requested by the Constitutional Amendments Implementation Team in order to update the age requirement for voting to align with the results of the May 2, 2015 Secretarial Election.

Emergency adoption of this amendment to the Election Law is necessary in order to ensure compliance with recent actions taken by the Nation's membership directing that tribal members eighteen (18) years of age and older are able to vote in the Nation's election, which would include the upcoming caucus scheduled for May 7, 2016. Emergency amendments do not require a public meeting or fiscal impact statement. If adopted, these amendments will become effective immediately and will remain in effect for six months, unless extended or permanently adopted [See Legislative Procedures Act 16.9-5].

Leasing Law

This item was carried over into the current term by the LOC. Until recently, for tribal trust lands, all surface leases were required to be individually approved by the Secretary of the US Department of the Interior. However, the federal HEARTH Act now enables tribes to approve individual surface leases for their own trust lands – provided that the tribe has adopted tribal leasing regulations that were approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

The LOC processed a new Leasing Law, and it was adopted by the OBC on May 13, 2015 and submitted for approval by the Secretary of the Interior. However, it was returned with required changes that would need to be made before the Secretary would approve the law.

Membership Ordinance Emergency Amendments

The Membership Ordinance only allows for an Oneida parent to relinquish a child's membership if it is for the sole purpose of enrolling that child in another Tribe [see 10.4-1(d)(3)(B)(ii)]. Cases have recently arisen where the Oneida father named by voluntary paternity is not the biological father as proven by genetic testing. The Membership Ordinance does not allow for these children to have their membership relinquished from the Oneida rolls despite the fact that the child no longer qualifies for enrollment with the Nation. Amend the Membership Ordinance on an emergency basis to allow for Oneida enrolled men who enroll their children under fraud, misrepresentation or mistake to relinquish the enrollment for these children when genetic testing proves the child is not Oneida and therefore not eligible for enrollment with the Nation.

Removal Law Amendments

These amendments were requested to make the process for removing various elected officials somewhat less difficult – the amended law would give the OBC, instead of GTC, the final decision on whether to remove elected members of boards, committees and commissions; and would enable a board, committee or commission to formally request removal of a member without needing to go through the petition process. The OBC removal process would not be amended.

Administrative Hearing Court (Formerly “Tribal Hearing Bodies”)

This item was originally submitted to the LOC on November 15, 2013 under the title “Tribal Hearing Bodies” and was carried over into the current term by the LOC. This was originally a request for the LRO to conduct research on Tribal Boards, Committees and Commissions to find out which are also hearing bodies and where the hearing body authority comes from. After that research was completed, it was proposed that an Administrative Court be developed which would assume the hearing body authority of each of those entities; so that all disputed administrative matters would be heard in the same forum.

Administrative Procedures Act Amendments

With the adoption of the Judiciary Law, the APA was set to be repealed as of March 1, 2015. If repealed at that time, it would have left various Tribal hearing bodies without any rules to govern hearings. A revised APA was adopted on an emergency basis to address that issue and now the amendments are being prepared for permanent adoption.

Administrative Procedures Act Repeal

When GTC approved amendments to the APA and the adoption of the LPA on January 7, 2013, part of the APA was repealed. When the Judiciary was adopted by GTC on that same day, the intent was to repeal the rest of the APA when the Appeals Commission ceased to exist on March 1, 2015. However, portions of the APA, including the Purpose and Policy section, Adoption, Amendment, Repeal section, Definitions section and the Inspection of Agency Orders Decisions, and Opinions section were inadvertently left out of the repeal language. The intent of this item is to repeal the APA in its entirety, effective March 1, 2015.

Investigative Leave Policy Amendments

Amendments to the Investigative Leave Policy were requested to delete a section of the Policy which prohibits the use of investigative leave when a complaint is filed. While the original intent of the section was to prohibit the use of investigative leave when one employee files a complaint against another, as defined under the Personnel Policies and Procedures, a decision by the Oneida Appeals Commission has interpreted the Policy to apply anytime the term “complaint” is used in an investigation. This could prohibit a supervisor from taking action to protect the Tribe in cases of misappropriation if inappropriate activities are identified based on a complaint arising out of a disciplinary or complaint process. The amendments would also reduce the time period of the investigation from 30 days to 15 days.

Marriage Law Amendments (2015)

Amendments to the Marriage Law were proposed after the U.S. Supreme Court denied certiorari to consider overruling the lower court’s finding that Wisconsin’s same-sex marriage ban is unconstitutional. Questions were raised since the Tribe’s Marriage Law does not allow for same-sex marriage and would not recognize a marriage conducted legally in Wisconsin.

For the record: Lisa Summers stated I wanted to express my concern with the statements made by the petitioner because I believe they are unfounded at this point. We've been making it a priority to ensure that the Business Committee and the community are fully aware of the progress of each petition that comes forward. We do so by making sure that it's on the Business Committee agenda as the due dates come forward. I need to express my support of the statements made by the Chief Financial Officer. There are several petitions that are pending at this time. There is limited staff to go forward and analyze these petitions. They are working through them to best of their ability, as expeditiously as possible. I think it's really unfortunate that there is an accusation out there which is unfounded. We are continuing to work with all of the areas, whether it's the Operations, the Legislative Operating Committee, the Law Office or Finance, to make sure that the best, most accurate information associated with each one of the requests that come before General Tribal Council is completed as thoroughly and timely as possible. We also do, as a Committee, have a responsibility to make sure that all pertinent information to each topic being requested is researched accurately to ensure that General Tribal Council has as much information as they possibly can to make a good decision on behalf of the Nation. One of the things that we are also doing to try to ensure the transparency of the progress of each petition is taking a dashboard and transferring it into the website so that members, as they want to see the progress of the petitions, can go on there and see the analyses as they are completed. That's something we have been working on and should be going live in the next four weeks. Tribal members, at their leisure, can go ahead and take a look at that information that'll be posted there on a regular basis. Thank you.

Motion by Brandon Stevens to schedule Petitioner John E. Powless Jr.: Per capita payments to a Special General Tribal Council meeting on Monday, May 23, 2016, at 6:00 p.m., seconded by Fawn Billie. Motion carried with one opposed [Lisa Summers]

For the record: Secretary Lisa Summers stated the reasons for my opposition are as stated earlier. It's more of the logistics and coordination.

For the record: Councilman Brandon Stevens stated this is why the General Tribal Council Meetings Law is important and how we really process the petitions in a manner that's reflective of what the General Tribal Council wants, in the order and fashion that they want it as well. Right now, we have some outstanding ones that might jump in front of the other. There's not a finite process right now and General Tribal Council Meetings Law would help that.
