An Indian Prayer

Oh Great Spirit, whose voice I hear in the winds
Whose breath gives life to everyone,
Hear me, I come to you as one of your children
I am weak...I am small...I need your wisdom and your strength
Let me walk in beauty, and make my eyes ever behold the red and purple sunsets
Make my hands respect the things you have made
Make my ears sharp so I may hear your voice
Make me wise, so that I may understand what you have taught my people
The lessons you have hidden in each leaf and rock
I ask for wisdom and strength not to be superior to my brothers
But to be able to fight my greatest enemy, myself
Make me ever ready to come before you with clean hands and straight eye
So as life fades away as a fading sunset
My spirit may come to you without shame

Why is 'abbreviated' such a long word?

Why is it that doctors call what they do 'practice'?

Why the person who invests all your money is called a 'broker'?

Why is lemon juice made with artificial flavor, and dishwashing liquid made with real lemons?

If flying is so safe, why do they call the airport the terminal?

This is the miracle that happens every time to those who really live:
the more they give....the more they possess....

~ Rainer Maria Rilke, German Poet
