Why is the Agency contacting me?

If you did not apply for child support services, but are receiving appointment letters

- We have either received an application from the other parent or a third-party caregiver with placement of the child
- Or, a referral has been received from an economic support agency
- Or, a request was received from another jurisdiction for child support services.

Paternity Establishment – Chapter 77

The purpose of this law is to establish paternity of Oneida children and other Indian children in order to protect the best interest of these children and their tribe.

Importance of Establishing Paternity

- The child's birth certificate will show the names of both parents, fostering a relationship with the father.
- Paternity establishment and enrollment help to strengthen the tribe.
- The child may be eligible for tribal enrollment, enriching the child through culture, tradition and other tribal benefits.
- Important health information may be available from both parents' medical histories.

Paternity Establishment

- If the father is not on the birth certificate there are two options:
 - Voluntary Paternity Acknowledgment

OR

- Court order determining paternity. Genetic testing may be requested by either party prior to establishment of paternity.

When the father is on the Birth Certificate

A court hearing is scheduled to address:

- Legal custody
- Placement

This is the only time the agency will be able to address custody and placement issues. After initial establishment, you must address these issues with the Court.

- Any child support obligation

After paternity is established

- If necessary, the paternity case manager will send out an income withholding document.
- The case will move to an ongoing worker, who will continue to manage and enforce child-support orders.

Welcome to Wisconsin Child Support Online Services

Child Support - Chapter 78

The law seeks to establish a fair and equitable child-support payment based on the real earning capability of parents.

- Child support orders are automatically reviewed by the Child Support Agency every 24 months (2 years).
- If there is a substantial change in circumstance (ex., change in pay, placement or benefits), the order may be modified.
- Parties may seek a modification on their own through Peacemaking services, motion to the court or by stipulation. For information, contact the Oneida Nation Family Court at 920-496-7200 or in person at 2630 W. Mason St., Green Bay.

Ongoing case management

- One-on-one meetings may be scheduled with your case manager to review your needs and make appropriate referrals to obtain or improve employability.
- Paying parties are encouraged to utilize their local job center for up-to-date employment opportunities. The agency is able to offer information on available job training programs in the area.

- On-going Case Managers will enforce cases by first using administrative enforcement tools such as: drivers license suspension; bank account seizures; liens on vehicles & personal property; and/or passport denial.
- Oneida Child Support strives to be proactive with families for the well-being of the children.

Substitute care

- If the agency receives a referral for children in out-of-home placements, such as foster care, kinship care, or juvenile corrections, the agency may establish an obligation for each parent.
- The parents' child support obligations will follow the child in these circumstances.

Chapter 79: Child custody, placement and visitation

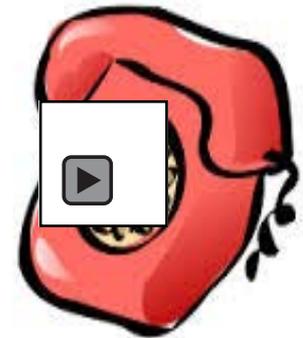

It is the policy of this law to create fair and equitable placement orders based on the facts of the case and best interests of the child.

▫

- If parties agree, a voluntary order can be made.
- Parties may use Peacemaking or stipulation for a voluntary order.
- Parties can motion for a Chapter 79 through the Oneida Family Court if they would like enforcement of or a change in placement, custody or the order in general.
- There is no automatic review done for changes in placement or custody.

Stay in touch with us!

- You can contact the Oneida Tribe Child Support Office at: (920) 490-3700, or the Milwaukee SEOTS office at (414) 329-4101.
- Parties need to report any changes in address, phone number, employment or income within 10 days of the change to receive better customer service for child support related business.

Promoting the wellbeing of all people

The Oneida people and culture are the most valuable things we have.
