SUSAN WHITE TRUST SCHOLARSHIP

THE PURPOSE of the Susan White Trust Scholarship Fund is to establish a trust resource that provides financial aid scholarships to assist with higher education financial needs not being met by tribal contribution, and to assist eligible enrolled Oneida Tribal members in securing higher educational opportunities based on established criteria.

1. Eligibility Requirements:

- Be an enrolled member of the Oneida Nation.
- Have a high school diploma or equivalency.
- Applicants shall be seeking post-secondary acceptance/opportunities through required pre-requisite accredited classes, post-graduate preparation, preparatory/examinations, or related preparatory courses.
- The Susan White Trust Scholarship does not fund students in high school, aptitude tests such as ACTs or SATs, dual credit courses or related preparatory programs below graduate levels, auditions, post-graduate certificates or professional licensing (example: teaching license).
- Individual students may not receive funding a subsequent time for the same pre-requisite classes, post-graduate preparatory/examination fees, or related preparatory course for which they previously received funding.
- Applicants must be in good standing with Title IV federal financial aid and the Oneida Higher Education Department and abide by its established guidelines.
(Applicants who are in default with student loans or not eligible for Title IV federal financial aid due to Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) or 150 Percent Rule (Max Time Frame) will not be eligible to receive this scholarship fund until all accounts have been remedied with proper documentation.
- Applications received after the class(es)/term/examination concludes are not eligible for funding.

2. Funding Details:

- Lifetime Susan White Trust Scholarship up to $3,000. Applicants who received prior assistance shall have that amount applied against the lifetime amount.
- Scholarships will be processed in the order the Department receives a completed application and shall be subject to the availability of funds.
- Approved scholarship awards will be sent directly to the school/provider or to the student if reimbursement applies.
- The final decision for an award is the responsibility of the Higher Education Department.
- Any applicant denied has the right to appeal, see SUSAN WHITE TRUST FUND POLICY; article VI for the appeal process.
- Upon completion of approved class(es), examination, etc., students are required to submit an official transcript of grades, if applicable or test/examination scores regarding the activity for which the Susan White Trust Scholarship was awarded.
