ONEIDA TRIBAL JUDICIAL SYSTEM TRIAL COURT

Cassandra, Carmellia, Joseph, and Jolene Nicholson, Petitioners

Docket No: 08-TC-019

v.

Date: June 9, 2008

Oneida Enrollments Department, Respondent

---

Resolved by Peacemaking

---

This case has come before the Oneida Tribal Judicial System, Trial Court. Judicial Officers, Stanley R. Webster, Mary Adams, and Leland Wigg-Ninham, presiding.

I Background

A pre-trial hearing was held on this matter on April 1, 2008 where the parties agreed to resolve this matter through Peacemaking. A forty-five day stay was granted allowing parties time to resolve this matter. May 10, 2008, the parties filed for a ten day extension which was granted.

II Issue

Did parties to this matter reach a satisfactory agreement?

III Analysis

According to the Agreement reached through Peacemaking, which was signed by all parties, it indicated a satisfactory agreement has been reached.

VI Decision

This court reviewed the agreement and finds that a satisfactory agreement has been reached by the parties involved in this matter. According to Article IV, Oneida Peacemaking System, Parties must notify the court of their agreement which allows the court to dismiss this matter in lieu of the Peacemaking Agreement signed by the parties. Therefore the matter of Cassandra, Carmellia, Joseph, and Jolene Nicholson v. Oneida Enrollment Department is hereby dismissed.
