ONEIDA TRIBAL JUDICIAL SYSTEM TRIAL COURT

---

Paul L. Spaulding,
Petitioner

Docket No: 10-TC-023

v.

Date: February 25, 2010

Susan Danforth,
Respondent

---

DISMISSAL

---

The case has come before the Oneida Tribal Judicial System, Trial Court. Judicial Officers Stanley R. Webster, Mary Adams and Leland Wigg-Ninham presiding.

I Background

On February 24, 2010 Petitioner, Paul L. Spaulding, filed an original complaint against Respondent, Susan Danforth requesting a Temporary Restraining Order for a work related matter.

The Petitioner's complaint does not state the harm suffered, or what law or rule will be violated. According to Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 31(F), grounds for an injunction have not been presented. Therefore, the trial court may dismiss the action.

II Decision

The Court dismisses the case due to Petitioner's failure to assert grounds for a Temporary Restraining Order.
