Decision on the Motion to Stay

This case has come before the Oneida Tribal Judicial System, Trial Court. Judicial Officers, Mary Adams, Sandra L. Skenadore, Jean M. Webster, presiding.

I Background

This case involves a request for a Temporary Restraining Order against an eviction notice from Respondent, Oneida Housing Authority.

Petitioner currently resides at N6435 Deerpath Drive, Oneida, WI. On February 16, 2010, Petitioner was issued a notice she had to Vacate the Premises. On February 24, 2010, the Executive Director of Oneida Housing Authority denied Petitioner's appeal. On February 26, 2010, Petitioner filed a Motion to Stay the 5-day Notice to Vacate received from Respondent.

The Court scheduled a hearing for March 5, 2010, to consider the merits of the eviction.

—At the March 5, 2010 hearing, Petitioner requested Motion to Stay the eviction until May 4, 2010 the Respondent offered no objection. Therefore, the Court granted the Motion to Stay the eviction.

II Decision

The Court granted Petitioner's Motion to Stay. The hearing is scheduled for May 4, 2010 at 9:00 am. Should the hearing proceed; the Parties shall be prepared to argue the merits of the eviction at the May 4th hearing.

It is so ordered.
