

Wisconsin DNR – Wildlife Management Internship 2023

Wildlife Management Field Internships – up to 3 positions available!

Rate: $13-15/hour

Internship Dates: Approximately May 22 – September 1, 2023

Locations:

- Crex Meadows State Wildlife Area and Governor Knowles State Forest in Grantsburg, WI (2 interns)
- Navarino Wildlife Area in Shiocton, WI (1 intern)

To apply: Email (or mail) cover letter, resume and references to:

Zak Knab
223 Steinfest Rd. Antigo, WI 54409
zachary.knab@wisconsin.gov

Deadline to Apply: March 5, 2023

This internship will consist of assisting Wildlife Management field staff with wildlife management projects, habitat management projects, and maintenance of wildlife areas throughout the state. Duties to include, but not limited to forestry invasive control, wetland infrastructure and equipment maintenance, wildlife surveys and biological inventory, waterfowl (duck and goose) banding, trail mowing and parking lot maintenance, property posting, agriculture tractor operation, equipment certifications and more.

Desired Qualifications:

- Working towards a degree in wildlife ecology, biology, forestry, or related natural resources field
- Experience operating tractors, mowers, chainsaws, and ATV's is preferred but not necessary
- Plant identification skills are preferred but not necessary
- Willingness to work outdoors in all weather conditions
- Works well with others and independently
- Valid Driver's License

Gain experience in wetland, upland and forest habitat management!

