Oneida Nation Alzheimer's Community Advisory Board

C.A.B

OUR IDENTITY

The Community Advisory Board, established in 2016, comprises 14 members from UW-Madison affiliates and Oneida Nation community members, representing several tribal organizations.

Our 4 GOALS

- Continue the Oneida Alzheimer's and Related Dementias Community Advisory Board "Oneida Alzheimer's CAB" to guide a culturally tailored outreach, education and research.
- Reach middle-aged adults, military Veterans and youth with Dementia Curriculum.
- Work to reduce stigma associated with Alzheimer's and Related Dementias by providing outreach and education.
- Continue efforts to optimize access to culturally competent dementia diagnostics.

WHAT WE DO

The CAB convenes monthly via virtual meetings to receive updates and provide valuable input on ongoing research projects. For additional details, please refer to our website:
