

Mending Broken Hearts

healing from unresolved grief & inter-generational trauma

Training of Facilitators

A training for caring adults seeking to learn and share Mending Broken Hearts' culturally-based approach to healing unresolved grief and inter-generational trauma. Learn problem-solving tools and cultural capacity-building skills in this 4-day training. Implementing MBH in your agency or community increases the sense of community, confidence, identity, and success in one's healing journey.

October 15 - 18, 2024

Tuesday through Friday

8:00a - 5:00p

Wise Women Gathering Place

1641 Commanche Ave, Green Bay, Wis.

Events Room - Suite I

"The Elders have told us that in order to heal, we must forgive. They said that we are carrying around trauma handed down to us from generations before, from one generation to the next, and we don't know it. Forgiveness is the pathway to getting rid of this trauma and the hate."

Don Coyhis
(Mohican)

REGISTRATION - No cost with exchange

We request your help facilitating 2 (two) future community workshops within 24 months of completing the training.
