Supervisors are not allowed to use discretion in determining the amount of holiday pay:

- Employee average hours (30-40 hours per week) will receive eight (8) hours of holiday pay.
- Employee average hours (20-29.99 hours per week) will receive four (4) hours of holiday pay.
- Employee average hours (less than 20 hours per week) will receive two (2) hours of holiday pay.

*Average hours should be the average an employee has worked in the past 4 weeks.

Average hours do NOT exclude time used as personal and vacation.

Non-Standard Observance – Examples include Nursing home staff, Oneida Police officers, Cage Cashiers, or retail staff who may work on Christmas day.

NOTE: These are example job positions and are not meant to be “all inclusive”.

Standard Observance – Administrative Assistants, Division Director, Printing clerk, who do not work on an observed holiday. NOTE: These are example job positions and are not meant to be “all inclusive”.
